Court of Awards was held recently by Girl Scout Troop 2080 during which a colorful program of folk dances from America and other countries was presented by the girls for parents and guests.

The costumes of white blouses and green skirts with white organdy aprons were accented by gay yellow flowers worn in the girls' hair. The skirts and the paper flowers were made by the Scouts.

During intermission, Mrs. Ray Bonawitz, leader, introduced guests in the audience: R. W. Whittam, troop sponsor; Mrs. Howard L. Thompson, neighborhood chairman; Mrs. V. T. Vanderpool, troop's swim instructor; Mrs. Spencer, teacher at Carl Steele School; and several leaders of other Girl Scout troops. Mrs. Robert M.
