

Everyone at Gable House is talking about the high games which were shot last week.

OPEN AND LEAGUE PLAY

During the Peterson point league last Wednesday night Joe Smith shot a high game of 254. He and Robbie Robinson are tied for season high game. Everyone wonders if someone will hit a 300 in this fabulous league. You can be sure they are all going to try hard enough and these are just the bowlers who can do it.

In open play Ed Sturm and Warren Steele each shot a sizzling 257 game. Nori Matsui, also in open play, was not far behind with a striking 256.

One junior scorer by the name of Dennis Kemberling shot a 203 in open play.

High for women in league play was Dot Nelson, Gable Perchers, who shot a terrific 229. Also of the Gable Perchers, Bonnie Harrison smashed a 221. Next to receive trophies are Carol Aud, 207; Ramona Casto, Newberry, 200; and Connie Mandell and Ginger Pene, Six to Niners, who each converted the 6-7-10 split.

AVAILABLE CLASSES

Bowling instructions for you gals who want to learn bowling properly will begin Monday, August 14, at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. These classes for beginners only will be taught every Monday and Friday at the same hours for three weeks. All necessary equipment, nursery facilities, and coffee will be free of charge. All you have to do is come over, enjoy yourself and learn to bowl.

For the advanced students, Jerry Homel will conduct the spare pick-up class tomorrow afternoon at one.

This Friday at 1 p.m. will be the second, in a series of three, class for anyone 50 years and over who would like to learn how to bowl. Ruth Caudle, qualified instructor, is donating her time and efforts to teach old and young alike the sport of bowling. Friday, she hopes to see some new faces as well as old ones, men and women 50 years and over, attending her class. All necessary equipment and coffee will be available to you with no charge. Come on over and see how much fun bowling can be.

Men who would like to take advantage of some free instruction are invited to come over to Gable House Sunday, August 20, at 9:30 a.m. Here's the chance to learn the proper techniques of the kegler sport and show your spouse or girl friend how good you can be. By learning to convert your spares, you will increase your average by 20 pins or more. As usual, there will be no charge, so come over.

GOING STRONG during the summer recreational program at El Camino College are youngsters who enjoy trampoline instruction.

Free to residents of the community, the program continues through Aug. 25.

P.O.P. High Diver Raul Garcia Believes Man May Jump—and Survive—Any Distance

High diver Raul Garcia believes there is no limit to the height from which a man can dive into water and live.

And he has spent most of his life proving it. Garcia is 33. For the past 25 years he has thrilled millions with his daily death-defying fiery dives from the jagged cliffs of Acapulco, Mexico, into the ocean, a feat which has brought him and his fellow divers world wide fame.

Raul has performed before some of the most important people in the world, among them former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard Nixon when they were in office. Over 50,000 people each month watch Garcia, the dean of the divers, from the vantage point of Acapulco's La Perla nightclub.

At Acapulco, Raul dives 136 feet from the top of the cliffs. Elsewhere, he has gone higher and would go higher still, if authorities would permit it. In 1958, he dove from four different bridges in the United States, among them the 155 feet high bridge at Huntington, West Virginia. No man has equaled that distance, but Garcia says he can do better.

"I wanted to dive from the Golden Gate at San Francisco, but the authorities turned me down. They said they believed I could do it okay, but they didn't want to encourage others to try it and end up killing themselves," says Raul.

The Golden Gate Bridge is 225 feet above the ocean. Currently, Garcia and two of his fellow Acapulco Cliff Divers are appearing for a limited time only at Pacific Ocean Park.

At P.O.P. they dive from a specially constructed tower, 110 feet over the Sea Circus pool. But Garcia isn't satisfied.

"I want to go higher." And P.O.P. officials have decided he should have his way.

UP TO 135'
As Garcia becomes accustomed to the 110 feet height, the tower will be raised to 136 feet, the limit of which engineers will allow the tower to be built.

This is the first California appearance for Garcia and his two fellow divers, Alphonso Apac and Manuel Garcia. They were originally signed for only a five-day engagement at P.O.P., but by popular demand are being held over.

The chief danger Garcia must counter with on all of his dives is the wind.

It can cause me to land in the water wrong," warns Garcia, "causing severe water burns, possible neck or back injuries or even death."

"Make a friend of the wind," says Garcia, "as an enemy it can throw you off balance and kill you. The wind is my friend and so I can and will dive from any height."

Top Volleyball Teams Will Compete for Title in Sixth Annual Tourney Aug. 19

Approximately 25 top-notch California beach volleyball teams are expected to compete in the Beach Volleyball Tournament Aug. 19 and 20 in conjunction with the Sixth International Paddleboard Race Festival in Manhattan Beach, according to William Allds, tournament chairman.

The tournament, officially known in volleyball circles as the Fourth Annual Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation Beach Volleyball Championships, will begin at 10 a.m. on the north side of Manhattan Beach State Pier August 19 and will end Sunday night with conclusion of finals play-offs, Allds said.

ELIMINATED

Mixed doubles and singles will be eliminated this year, Allds said, in order to give more tournament time to men's "double A" and "single A" competition, and women's "double A" competitions. Approximately 15 men's teams and 10 women's teams are expected to compete.

Allds expects to see approximately 300 volleyball contestants on the beach during the two-day tournament, which allows for the usual beach-style 6-man volleyball team plus about four substitute players for each squad.

Preliminary games will be concluded Aug. 19, with semifinals scheduled for 10 a.m. Aug. 20, and finals a few hours later at 2:30 p.m.

The Beach Volleyball Championship has emerged as a major event in Manhattan Beach's International Paddleboard Race Festival, which features a 32-mile paddleboard race from the Isthmus of Catalina Island to Manhattan Beach State Pier, Aug. 20. The festival is sponsored by the County of Los Angeles, the City of Manhattan Beach and the International Paddleboard Association, Inc.

International Flavor in Aug. 18-20 Swimming Meet

The National AAU Men's Outdoor Swimming Championships at Los Angeles Swim Stadium Aug. 18-19 took on more international flavor today with entries from top stars of Brazil, Argentina and Mexico.

Meet director John C. Fellows announced that sprint swimmer Manuel Dos Santos will represent Brazil, butterfly ace Luis A. Nicolao Argentina and three divers, headed by Olympian Alvaro Gaxiola, are coming from Mexico.

Both Dos Santos and Nicolao defeated American champions in the recent meet at Japan, and are flying to Los Angeles with Japan's team of 14, led by free style wonder Tsuyoshi Yamanaka. The group arrives in Los Angeles Monday, Aug. 13.

UPSET

Dos Santos scored a sensational upset in Tokyo in the 100 meters over Steve Clark, teenage wonder of the Santa Clara Swim Club, national
