Minister Seeks Volunteer Work For Convention

"Help wanted—1,000 volunteer workers." This announcement was made by Leonard Olliff, presiding minister of the Torrance congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

According to Olliff, volunteers will be needed from all crafts and trades to transform Candlestick Park at San Francisco into a place of worship for the United Worshipers District Assembly, August 29 to September 3.

Many from the local congregation have offered to fill out the volunteer service form which was handed out by the presiding minister. The form will then be sent to convention headquarters and processed by Wayne M. Knott who has the responsibility of seeing that each applicant is placed where needed.

"Since there will be over 50,000 in attendance at Candlestick Park, many from Torrance and other communities of the state, we will want to make their stay a pleasant one," the presiding minister said, adding that, "the entire family can receive maximum benefit of the assembly when all can be accommodated comfortably and efficiently."

A complete cafeteria and dining room as well as book rooms, first aid facilities and information, will be among the 20 departments that will be set up and manned by volunteer workers. The six-day program will feature Bible discourses and dramatizations designed to help each member of the family live in harmony with Bible principles.

Youths of Church Attend Mt. Camp

The Advanced Youth Group of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church at 1610 Acacia Avenue, sponsored by the Youth Pastor deWaal and his assistant Penny Thomas, spent the weekend of July 28, 29 and 30 at Mill Creek Camp in the San Bernardino Mountains.

The highlights of the trip consisted of Scripture Study, Nature Study, camping out, swimming and hiking.

This is part of the progressive Youth Program that is planned for the young people of the Adventist Church. Many of the different age groups are attending various programs at Cedar Falls.

SERIES
Sanders is also presenting a series of lessons on Parables each Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m., in the mid-week Bible study.

Dr. Sanders, Dean of George Pepperdine College, and Professor of Religion, has served as minister in Sherman, Texas; Nashville, Tennessee, and locally in the Southwest Los Angeles area. He was Dean of David Lipscomb College, in Nashville, for fourteen years before moving to the West Coast. After graduating from Texas Christian University, he attended Vanderbilt and the University of Southern California, where he received his Doctorate.

WEDNESDAY
During his Wednesday evening series Sanders will examine Jesus' teaching of the people by means of Parables. "It was the purpose of Jesus," Dr. Sanders commented, "to bring the meaning of infinite truth concerning the nature of the Kingdom of God down to the finite mind of man where it could be grasped." Among the Parables studied will be that of the Sower, the Good Samaritan, the Prodigal Son and others.

The public is cordially invited to attend all services of the Church.
Dr. Sanders has been invited to lecture to the adult class of the Sunday Morning Bible School, who are presently completing a detailed study of the Book of Luke. Bible School is conducted at 10 a.m., with classes for all age groups.
