Safety Council Plan Program Of Monthly Meetings

City of Torrance Traffic Safety Council, created and appointed by the city to further traffic safety and other safety programs, this week announced plans for a monthly meeting open to associate members and other interested parties.

These monthly meetings will feature programs concerned with traffic safety, bicycle safety, and allied fields of safety. This type of monthly luncheon meeting has been operated very successfully by other cities, and the Council feels that Torrance citizens, educators, service clubs, and industries will support this program for their mutual benefit.

First meeting is planned for Thursday, September 7 at noon, and will be held at the Jump 'N Jack Restaurant, 2900 Pacific Coast Highway, Torrance, at a cost of $2.50 per person.

First meeting will be kicked off by officer Don Hartel, who is the new Torrance Police Officer.

Torrance Traffic Safety Council urges support of this program for the safety and betterment of the community.

Name Torrance AF Officer To Top Reserve Post

Lt. Colonel John I. Bainer, 2615 Lesserman St., Torrance, has been named director of material for the 864th Air Force Reserve Recovery Group located at Long Beach Municipal Airport.

The appointment to the staff of the newly-formed Reserve organization of the Torrance man was made by Colonel Claude J. Norton, commanding officer.

Colonel Bainer has been active in Air Force Reserve activities in Southern California for many years. He is former commander of the 935th Air Reserve Squadron and a former staff member of the 9078th Air Reserve Group.

RESERVIST

He is also past commander of the First Reserve Squadron, Air Force Association. In civilian life, Colonel Bainer is associated with the North Division of Northrop Aircraft in Hawthorne.

The Recovery Groups, established recently at strategic locations in the United States, are a new concept in the Air Force Reserve Program.

The units, at civilian airports, will provide haven in the event of war for combat aircraft returning from missions and unable to land at their home bases.

The 864th and other organizations of the same type include units for communications, crash and rescue, refueling, medical, transportation and other services.

Reserve airmen are still being sought to fill vacancies in the Long Beach unit. The personnel office at the base, located at Spring St. and Redondo Ave., El Segundo, will be open from 7:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday to answer questions regarding the Recovery Group.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL Alexander L. Oppelt, Commander of the Southern California Air Force Recruiting Service presents Tom C. Rupert, owner of the Space Age Travel Agency, 21170 Hawthorne Boulevard, Torrance, with the Air Force Recruiting Certificate of Appreciation.

Rupert Awarded AF Certificate

Tom C. Rupert, owner of Space Age Travel Agency, Torrance, received the Air Force Recruiting Certificate of Appreciation Thursday from Lt. Col. Alexander L. Oppelt, commander of the Southern California Air Force Recruiting Service.

Rupert was commended for "consistent and devoted service in assisting the recruiting service and for efforts towards advancement of peace through air power."

He was cited for his service in preparing displays of the X-15 and the THOR missile in various business locations for Air Force recruiting purposes.

Walsh said that in other new executive assignments for the water company, William W. Franklin, vice president, has been named in charge of all water and electric operations; W. C. Welman, secretary-treasurer, assumes an additional post as vice president, and R. M. Ebaugh becomes chief engineer.

Name R. L. Anthony Executive Ass't. Of SoCal Water

R. L. Anthony, 4139 West 177th St., Torrance, formerly assistant secretary of the Southern California Water Company, has been appointed to the new post of executive Assistant, it was announced this week by Philip F. Walsh, President.

Anthony's new duties will include acquisitions, extensions of contracts, advertising and promotion, municipal contacts and handling of regulatory matters.

Walsh said that in other new executive assignments for the water company, William W. Franklin, vice president, has been named in charge of all water and electric operations; W. C. Welman, secretary-treasurer, assumes an additional post as vice president, and R. M. Ebaugh becomes chief engineer.

Commend ECC Journalism Instructor For Services

W. A. (Bill) Kamrath, journalism instructor and Coordinator of Public Relations at El Camino College, has been commended by formal resolution of the board of Trustees, Stuart E. Marsee, president of the college, announced this week.

With gratitude, the trustees commended Kamrath for eight years of service as a teacher and adviser whose achievements include direction of the student newspaper "Warwhoop," winner of the Pacemaker Award of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

El Camino, the first junior college to receive the award, shared 1961 honors with the University of Minnesota, the University of San Francisco, the University of Miami and the University of Florida.

15 AWARDS
It was noted further in the resolution that the "Warwhoop" received fifteen consecutive All-American Awards for the Associated Collegiate Press.

Included in the commendation list of the resolution is the part played by Kamrath in the interpretation of services and opportunities offered by the young college to the community it serves.

Apart from his college duties, Kamrath served two years as chairman of the public Relations Advisory Committee of the California Teachers Association, was editorial consultant for CTA, staff writer for This Day Magazine.
