Novel Ideas Add To Room Sharing

A war between two sisters who share one room can end in a truce with new stack-up, roll-up, fold-up furniture to act as a peacemaker.

So reports the August issue of Seventeen Magazine, which suggests four types of furniture which fit in closet-size corners and make plenty of room for two.

First of the space-savers is a tower of stools which tumbles down to seat a number of guests. Two, three, four or more can be stacked in a corner, take up less room than a chair, and come apart to provide enough seats for

New Dress Shop Has Open House

Mrs. Idabell Miller, resident of Southwood Estates and graduate of Torrance High School has opened a new ladies fashion shop Mona Gail's, in the West Torrance Shopping Center.

Mona Gail's Fashions, from famous name brand manufacturers, also features clothes for the shortie (5' 1" and under) and the tall girl (5' 7" over). A complete line of accessories and lingerie is also carried.

Mrs. Miller is assisted by her niece, Patricia Prentice.

Architecture and design of the interior was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Come in and enjoy the friendly atmosphere of their open house, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 8 and 9, 4800 Torrance Blvd. (next to Tiff's Coffee Shop)

REDHEAD Kathy McGugan of Torrance is an entrant in the contest to become Queen of the Lawndale Community Fair. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd McGugan, 1552 203rd St., the 19 year-old blue eyed Kathy is sponsored by the Lawndale Rotary Anns.

Charity Sponsors Rummage Sale

Beta Eta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International will hold its annual rummage sale at Noahs Ark 15638 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 8 and 9 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

All proceeds will be used by the chapter to further its philanthropic work in the community.

any number of guests.

Two beds in the space of one is the miracle of the twin-size trundle-bed. The bottom looks like a drawer during the day, pulls out all made up at night. Twin drop leaf desks provide each sister with a private study center, and can be hung on the wall or perched atop other useful storage units.

A room divider between twin beds will keep late study lights from disturbing a roommate.

ZIMMERMAN WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE

The Rev. Gil Zimmerman, pastor of First Methodist Church, Torrance, is attending the sixth annual Pastors' School of the Southern California-Arizona Methodist Conference, Sept. 4 to 7.

More than 130 ministers are expected at the school on the campus of Methodist-related California Western University, San Diego.

The school is sponsored by the Conference's Board of Ministerial Training. The Rev. Noel C. LeRoque, pastor of First Methodist Church, San Diego, is dean.

Lecturers will include Dr. Harvey H. Potthoff, Iliff School of Theology, Denver; Dr. Howard J. Clinebell, Jr., Southern California School of Theology, Claremont.

News Of Servicemen

Attending flag-raising ceremonies, Aug. 19, at the end of four months winter darkness at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, was Donald L. Archibald, storekeeper second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Archibald of 5356 Doris way, Torrance.

Members of Antarctic Support Activities and Detachment "A" of Air Development Squadron Six took part in the ceremonies during a full minute of day light at the "bottom of the world."

Temperature at McMurdo was minus 10 degrees, unusually warm this early in the season, and winds were recorded at more than 40 m.p.h., during the sun's first appearance since April 23.

Men of the wintering-over party now are busy preparing for the mid-September arrival of the first aircraft from the outside world since April.

Lawrence A. Gipson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gentry of 1533 W. 205th St., Torrance, completed recruit training, Aug. 11, at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

Military ceremonies marked ed the end of nine weeks of "boot camp" and included a full dress parade and review before high ranking officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Participating in a large "fleet sail" aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger for a cruise to the Western Pacific, are Warren R. Heaton, fire control technician third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Heaton of 1816 Calamar, and Lon R. Baker, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Blanch K. Weber of 165 W. 223rd St., both of Torrance.

The fleet sail, largest scheduled by the Navy in four years, will involve approximately 20 ships, including one other aircraft carrier, two heavy cruisers, and three destroyer divisions.

During the operation, the ships will be under the command of Vice Admiral Charles L. Melson, commander of the First Fleet, who will fly his flag from the heavy cruiser USS Helena. Most of the ships involved are normal rotational reliefs for ships now serving with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Undergoing plebe summer training with midshipmen in the class of 1965 at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., is Midshipman William R. Akin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Akin of 19524 S. Flavian Ave., Torrance.

The class, which was sworn in June 28, is receiving the training in preparation for entering the academy's Brigade of Midshipmen in the fall.

The two-month military indoctrination includes marching, correct wearing of the Navy uniform, Navy terminology and some academic work.

Midshipmen undergo four years training at the academy, including three summer training cruises. Their curriculum, consisting of 160 semester hours leads to a Bachelor of Science degree.

Upon graduation from Annapolis, midshipmen receive a commission of ensign in the Navy or second lieutenant in the Marine Corps, Army or Air Force.

Marine Pvt. LeRoy Hutchins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Hutchins of 20550 S.

Earl St., Torrance, completed individual combat training, Aug. 18, with the Second Infantry Training Regiment at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

Four weeks of combat training are given to every new marine upon completion of recruit training. They receive instruction in the latest in patrolling, first aid, military explosives, defensive positions and advanced schooling of weapons firing.

The art of survival is continually stressed for individual as well as team operations.

Army Pvt. Lawrence J. Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Newman, 101 S. Guadalupe Ave., Redondo Beach, recently graduated from the 101st Airborne Division Jump School at Fort Campbell, Ky.

Newman received his paratrooper wings after completing three weeks of intensive ground and aerial training which included five parachute jumps. The 101st, a major Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) unit, maintains a constant state of readiness to move anytime, anywhere, in case of national emergency.

The 24-year-old soldier entered the Army in November 1960. He was graduated from South Bay High School in 1957.
