Folk songs will be the specialty of the Limelights, a nationally-known trio, which will appear on the El Camino campus Sept. 26 at 8:15 p.m. in the women's gymnasium.

Tickets are $1.50 for bleacher seats and $2.00 for chairs on the floor of the gym and are on sale now in the Student Store.

Although tickets may be purchased at the door that evening, it would be wise to reserve seats beforehand. Henrietta C. Martin, assistant director of student personnel, advised.

The Limelights are composed of Alex Hassilev, a bassist, a Glenn Yarbrough, a guitarist.

The act began when the three met in May, 1959, in a small town in Colorado. They were booked at the

They also have a top selling album to their credit called "Tonight: In Person, The Limelights."

Sponsored by fishing boat owners, canners, fishermen's union members and just plain friends, the testimonial dinner is expected to be one of the outstanding events of the fall season.

State Attorney General Stanley Mosk is scheduled to be the speaker for the evening. Donald P. Loker of Star Kist Canners will be master of ceremonies. Brief remarks are also expected from City Councilman John Gibson, Supervisor Burton Chace and Jerry Buchholz, now a graduate student of the University of California at Berkeley, tied for second place in 1957; and Jerry Makanson, now a naval aviator, was third in 1959.

A presentation ceremony of the books and the certificate will be held early in the fall semester as a feature of a chemistry seminar.

Johnson, graduated from Narbonne High School in 1960 and has completed two semesters at El Camino College. At the completion of his work at El Camino, he plans to transfer to UCLA. He is 19 years old and resides at 4114 W. 177th St., Torrance.

Richard Nevins, member of the Board of Equalization.

John Royal of the I.L.W.U. Fishermen's Local 33 is the labor co-ordinator for the dinner. Herbert Davis of the Fish Canners Association is in charge of public relations. Assisting with overall general arrangements is Anthony Nizetich, representing the Fishermen's Co-operative association. Deadline for the souvenir program will be Sept. 15, according to Kolumbic, who may be reached at the I.L.W.U. Fishermen's Union, TE 3-1391. Ticket sales will be closed Sept. 25 according to Monti, who can be reached at the Independent Fishermen's Union, TE 2-4982.

Preparations are being made to feed more than 600 persons. Tony Perkov and Nick Ore are in charge of the Slavonian dinner which will be served. Roving troubadours will add to the evening's entertainment.

AID

"If federal aid to education is not necessary, and if it is not the most economical way to finance the schools, why take a chance—even a remote chance—on federal control? The truth is, the whole concept of federal aid to education betrays a lack of faith in democratic processes. It is a vote of 'no confidence' in the intelligence and the integrity of the average citizen."
