Gay Tone Seen for Fall Style

Bright, bright colors are a fall fashion note which will be stressed in the fashion show by Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Thursday, Sept. 21, at the new Nativity parish auditorium, Torrance.

A run-down of the new colors — Egyptian orange, Killarney green and Turkish Morocco red, China blue, taupe — might be mistaken for a roll-call at the UN, according to Mrs. Neta Mann, whose shop is providing clothing.

Predominating the style field is the "Blouson look," with the hemlines hiked even higher, Mrs. Mann says. Fur trim is used in collars and other ingenious ways, and Italian knits still hold sway in the fashion scene.

Members of the local CDA court and their daughters will serve as models. Mmes. J. W. Crew, Joseph Lucas, Robert Larmon, George Abramovick, James Cimore, Laurence Derouin, Bob Rodina, Frank Zboyan, Richard Ban, John McVey, Marie Leininger and Miss Susan Cimore will model women's clothing.

Teen-age models are Misses Sandy Korkoski, Diane Landerville and Karen Ducas. Miss Jean Klaesges will model pre-teen fashions.

Mmes. Robert Klaesges and Harvey Lee, general chairmen, are tying loose ends together — decorations, prizes, programs, refreshments — so that everything will go smoothly the evening of this major ways and means event in the court year.

Committee chairmen assisting them are: Mmes. Peter O'Brien, models; Elles Cook, refreshments; Ralph Sullivan, programs; Victor E. Benstead and Donald Bryant, decorations.

Also helping are Mmes. Richard Ban, Rodney Stetson, John Melville, Donald Schwab, Harold DeWan, Paul McDonald, Frank Zboyan, C. Hata, Lloyd Landerville, Ray Montenegro, Mrs. Donald Bryant will be commentator, with Mrs. Joseph Cimore, Grand Regent of Court St. Catherine, greeting all guests. Reservations for tables of eight may be made beforehand with Mrs. Klaesges, or tickets will be available at the door that evening. The fashion show is scheduled to start at 8 p.m. at the new Nativity parish auditorium, Engracia and Arlington Aves., Torrance.

Junior Women Ready for Swim

A swim party and work at Garden Valley Association School and muscular dystrophy are among the recent activities of the Torrance Junior Women's Club.

The women are planning a pirate swim party Saturday, Sept. 23, at the Adlai Swim School, Torrance. Tickets are now available for the swim-dance-buffet dinner affair, according to Mrs. Jerry Saladin, ways and means chairman.

Prizes will be placed in the deep end of the pool and for a nominal fee one may dive for prizes. Assisting Mrs. Saladin for the project is Mrs. Joseph Boylan.

The club entertained mentally handicapped at Garden Valley during summer school. Mrs. John Stokely entertained dressed as a clown. Clown decorated cupcakes, punch and ice cream were served. Members planning the party were Mmes. Edward Aiken, Ronald Forestal, Richard Dorothy and John Stokley.

Mrs. Jack Dean, president of the Torrance club, attended the Marina District roundtable in Santa Monica. Others attending from Torrance were vice president of Marina District, Joseph Bay, and Rufus Sandstrom.

Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, health chairman and Mrs. Dean attended a luncheon at the Thunderbird Hotel in connection with muscular dystrophy work.

Pancakes, Coffee Breakfast Menu

"All the pancakes and coffee you want" will be served Sunday, Sept. 17, from 8 a.m. to noon, by the Lomita Eastern Star Chapter 191, according to Helen Andrews, chairman.

The breakfast will be served at the Eastern Star Temple on Bland Place, Lomita.
