

FLATS HAVE FLAIR

Flats have more flare this year, says the August issue of Seventeen Magazine. Boots, sneakers, moccasins and ties are spruced up for fall in zippy leathers, brave colors, bold styles. Fashion newsmakers include square toed boots, sneakers, saddles and loafers, pointy toed flannel sneakers, and petal-toed patent leather moccasins.

EVANGELISTIC TEAM will preach a series of talks beneath this tent (right) at the corner of Sepulveda and Hawthorne avenues in Torrance during September. The team, Hardy-Roy, will begin the series Saturday night at 7:45. The last lecture will be given Sept. 23. Saturday's talk is "Facing the Future with Confidence."

Halldale Avenue PTA Appoints New Chairmen

Halldale Avenue PTA Executive Board held its first meeting for the year Sept. 8 with Mrs. Lytle B. White, president, presiding.

New chairmen ratified included Mmes. Vernal Johnson, citizenship; Warren Ansley, founders day; Ed Corley and Kenneth Beehler, refreshments; Robert Tilley, registration; Ridgey Pearson, safety; Arthur Royan, telephone; John Aurenz, civil defense.

The resignation of Mrs. Arthur Royan as corresponding secretary was read and accepted with Mrs. Eugene Theberge being elected to fill that position. Plans were made for officers and chairman to attend the 10th District School of Information in San Pedro Sept. 21.

School principal, Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, announced that Halldale has three new teachers this year: James Clark, Mrs. Helen Friedman, and Mrs. Phyllis Quayle. Miss Shirley Leedom will be school nurse. Jack Cowger will be in charge of playground activities after school. Halldale will again have several student teachers from Marymount College.

Mrs. Raymond Sloan, program chairman, gave an outline of the program planned for the year. The theme will be "Expanding Family Life Frontiers." Committee reports were also given by Mmes. Glen Patrich, ways and

Ozanam Sunday Mass Observed In Southland Area

Honoring Frederic Ozanam, founder of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, Ozanam Sunday will be observed in Southland parishes Sunday, Sept. 17, James E. Dolan, Spiritual director, announces.

Throughout the world, a half million members of the society will pray for the beatification of Ozanam during Mass Msgr. Dolan said.

In the Los Angeles Archdiocese, many parishes will offer a special Mass for this intention. St. Vincent de Paul conference members will receive communion and pray together in a group.

Before Ozanam died in 1853, conferences of the society had reached to far corners of the earth.

means; Jack Kenyon, membership; William Malin, Community Chest; Herbert Clark, magazines; Donald Hartman, budget and finance; and Ralph Standridge, recreation.
