DANCE SCHOOL

doorway to a happier, healthier tomorrow

Right now, it might seem years and years before your little girl takes the big step from youngster to young woman. But time has a way of slipping by and little girls have a way of growing up all too fast, to unexpectedly... often too soon to do all the things you dream you'd like to do for them.

That's why it's so important to consider this: Dance School, today — can do so much for your little girl through all her tomorrows. Through intelligently planned, carefully supervised dance instruction and exercises, her little girl's natural body development and health are strengthened and protected. She learns the thrill of using her body to create beautiful and expressive movement. She gains a polished femininity, an assured way of carrying and conducting herself that will serve her always.

Open the door to this wonderful, wonderful world of dance for your child, too. Visit our studio this week—she'll never be a little girl again.

THE THREE "FACES" OF MARTY—Sequence of photos at right, posed by model Marty McCarter, is a study of what accessories do for the women. In first photo Miss McCarter is wearing a basic black sheath dress without adornments. In middle pic she has added fashion's newest multi-strand matinee length necklace with matching golden drop earrings, and the chic touch for the sophisticated—the long jeweled cigarette holder by Wiesner of Miami. In photo to far right Marty wears a beautiful five strand golden toned necklace, it's strands intermixed with topaz colored Aurora Borealis crystals by Laguna. Matching long drop earrings and a three strand bracelet complete the set. On her arm she has the new "fur look" with a leopard muff. The jewelry set in photo three is one of several merchandise gifts to be given away free at a drawing at Del Mar Accessories' new Del Amo Center store on Friday, September 15th at 8 p.m. Registration is now open.

Republican Senatorial Candidate Scheduled to Speak in San Pedro

Howard Jarvis, a Republican candidate for United States Senate for California, 1962, will speak on "Government of the People" at the Hacienda Hotel, San Pedro, Monday, Sept. 18 at 8 p.m.

Jarvis was born in Utah in 1903. Upon graduating from the University of Utah in 1925, he entered the newspaper publishing business as owner-editor. After moving to Los Angeles in 1934 Howard Jarvis became president or owner of a number of manufacturing concerns.

This Republican has held more than fifty positions of trust and responsibility in the past president L.A. County Republican Assembly, vice president, California Republican Assembly, and Western States Campaign Director 1960 Republican National Committee.

He has made more than 1,500 radio and television appearances both locally and nationally, and has made over 11,000 speeches for the Republican Party.

A couple of his better known phrases are, "A strenuous faddler, bound by the courage of his restrictions," and "The middle of the road is too close to the left."

The Harbor Young Republican Club cordially invites the public to hear Jarvis and his interesting views. There is no charge.

Surer than any magic potion, water becomes the elixir of modern life. Without giving water a thought, we drink it, bathe in it, cook with it, use it to clean our homes and clothes. We sprinkle our lawns and wash our cars. No wonder these growing Dominguez-Carson-Torrance communities use more than 30 million gallons of water every day.

For more than 50 years, it has been the privilege of the Dominguez Water Corporation to serve the people who live and work here. And the progressive management of this public service organization is busily planning ahead for the next 50 years.
