

MILITARY CEREMONY

Linda Jean Bennett Wed To Lt. Floyd B. Spencer

MRS. FLOYD B. SPENCER, JR.
... Nee Linda Jean Bennett

A military arch of crossed sabres was formed at First Baptist Church in Torrance for the recent marriage of Miss Linda Jean Bennett and Lt. Floyd B. Spencer, Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Lee Bennett of 1731 Gramercy, Torrance. The bridegroom is the son of Col. and Mrs. F. B. Spencer, Sr., who are stationed with the Army in Germany.

Wedding Gown
The bride, given in marriage by Thomas E. Mann, her grandfather, wore a gown of organza and lace. The organza skirt was trimmed with lace and the bodice was entirely lace. She carried orchids and stephanotis.

Maid of Honor Miss Doris Ruth Spencer wore a floor-length gown of blue satin. Misses Glenda Traw, Cheryl Lacy, Grace Connatt and Linda Eldrige, bridesmaids wore identical gowns.

Mother of the Bride
Mrs. Bennett selected a dress of blue silk organza over satin for her daughter's wedding.

Best man was Lt. Michael Irvine, Jr. Ushers and sabre bearers were Lts. Bruce A. Meredith, Ausby J. Trece, Thomas A. Forster, and William R. Sullins.

Wedding Trip
The couple took a wedding trip of four days to Santa Barbara. They now reside in Rolling Hills.

Mrs. Scott is a graduate of Torrance High School. Her husband graduated in 1958 from the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.

Nativity Parish Set For Benefit Show

Nativity Parish, under the direction of Ray Negrete will present the "Miss Caroline," a benefit variety show, Oct. 13, 14, and 15 at the new Parish Hall, corner of Engracia and Arlington.

A former member of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the Fresno Philharmonic, and the Catholic Guild of Organists, Negrete is presently engaged as choir director and organist at Nativity Church. "Miss Caroline," with a cast of one hundred, will include dances, song styles, and instrument variety. The program features a Show Boat with scenes from Mexico and the South and promises to be one of the most delightful events of the year.

Beginning their voyage in New Orleans, the passengers of "Miss Caroline" sing some songs of the South as the boat slowly pulls away on its "Sentimental Journey." "Miss Caroline" then passes through the picturesque Panama Canal on her way to Old Mexico, alive with the gaiety and exciting rhythms of "Fiesta!" The Show Boat reaches her destination in California, tying up at the Los Angeles Harbor.

Women Discuss Service Project

The regular meeting of Xi Zeta Lambda was held at the home of Mrs. Bert Whited. "Maps" from the Cultural Program Book, Grand Tour, was presented by Mrs. Frolan Cota.

Mrs. Ullis Delahousie, civil defense chairman, reported on fall out shelters and stressed importance of taking course on Individual and Family Survival in adult education classes.

After the business meeting, a surprise baby shower was given for Mrs. John Wise.

Next social planned by Xi Zeta Lambda is a Casino Party, Saturday Sept. 23, at the home of Mrs. Bill Swisher. The chapter is also planning a Halloween Party at Higgins Patio, on Oct. 14.

Fronts Hold Open House on Holiday

Rabbi and Mrs. Henri E. Front and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Lewison held open house on Rosh Hashonah from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. at their home, 4154 Via Lado, Torrance.

This is the third year the spiritual leader of Temple Menorah and his wife and the temple president and his wife have celebrated this event on the day of the Jewish New Year.

Honored guests were the congregational families of Temple Menorah who reside throughout the South Bay and Palos Verdes Peninsula areas.

In the receiving line to extend their personal greetings and good wishes for a Happy New Year during this Holy Day Season which ends with the observance of Yom Kippur Sept. 20 were the Rabbi and Mrs. Front and Mr. and Mrs. Lewison.

On the refreshment table were the traditional Sabbath bread, a 6 lb. chalah, cake, cookies and punch. Hostesses at the punch bowl were

Women

Suzann Price ... Women's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Women Learn Sewing, Gourmet Cooking at Tech

Are you considering a career in the fashion or foods field? Opportunities in these areas are open to young and old alike, and Los Angeles Trade-Technical College has included a wide variety of these classes in its fall schedule of courses.

In the glamorous world of fashions, the college's Apparel Arts Department will offer training this fall in power sewing, men's tailoring, dry cleaning, and fashion design.

For those interested in the art of cooking, the Culinary

Arts Department has planned day classes in commercial baking, chef's training, home catering, and restaurant management.

Clothing Production
The Los Angeles garment industry, second in the nation in total garment production, offers wide and extensive opportunities in apparel creating and production.

After about six weeks training on single needle machines in Trade-Tech College's power sewing course, woman can be placed on jobs or can continue their studies in more complicated work such as double needle, overlock, button and button hole, blind, and embroidery stitching.

If you've ever wanted to own your own business in the fashion industry, Trade-Tech offers training in the dry cleaning curriculum that can help you on your way to being your own boss.

Included in the program are drycleaning chemistry, textile science, spotting and wetcleaning, machine pressing and hand finishing bushing, receiving office piece-

(Continued on Page B2)

YOUR TICKET SIR, to our annual autumn dance ... from the Torrance Fireladies. The event will be held Sept. 23 at the Torrance

Elk's Club. Pictured are Eng. George Blahnik, Mrs. Charles Brenner, Mrs. John Spoon, and Capt. John Czapito.

MISS JOY MARLENE PEARMAN
... Will Wed Feb. 17

Pearman-Grabber Engagemant Told

The engagement of Miss Joy Marlene Pearman to Lee Gordon Grabber was announced recently by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn T. Pearman of 2122 Martina Ave., Torrance. Grabber is the son of Martin

J. Grabber of West Berne, Ind. The prospective bridegroom resides at 2611 W. Carson St., Torrance. He is employed by the Torrance police department.

Miss Pearman is a 1955 graduate of Torrance High School and also graduated from El Camino College, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Delta sorority.

She is employed by Farmers Insurance Group and was a member of Jobs Daughters. Grabber attended high school in Indiana and is presently attending El Camino. He served four years in the Navy during the Korean War.

The couple has selected Saturday, February 17, as the wedding date.

PTA Entertains Narbonne Faculty

The Narbonne High School coffee hour Friday, Sept. 8, faculty were entertained at a by the Narbonne High School PTA executive board.

Herbert J. Morey, principal, greeted the faculty members. Mrs. Evelyn Price, girls vice principal, introduced the two A.P.S. students who will attend Narbonne for the 1961-62 year.

Teenat Taquir of Pakistan was introduced with her foster mother, Mrs. Leonard Loy, and foster sister, Nancy Loy. Salvador Gishert was introduced with his foster mother, Mrs. Marvin E. Fulton, Salvador is from Spain.

Following the coffee hour

Mrs. Joseph B. Butler, president. Members were introduced and a financial report was given by Mrs. Leland Van Buren, treasurer.

Mrs. C. L. Wilson, program chairman, gave her report on the future programs and announced the first meeting will be a night meeting Oct. 17.

The Milk Bowl Game will be held at Narbonne Oct. 13. The next executive board meeting will be Friday, Oct. 13, at 10 a.m.

Sitters' Exchange Elects President

The East Southwood sitters' exchange of Torrance meets Wednesday, Sept. 20, to elect a new president. This group of busy mothers exchange baby sitting on a point system.

Points are charged for sitting with the children and credited to the sitter. Day time sitting is in the sitter's home and evenings in the home of the children being cared for.

Besides being voted on by the membership one must reside within the boundaries of West Ocean, East Anza, South Torrance Blvd., and both sides of Carson Blvd.

Mrs. Joseph Maxim, 21302 Talisman, FR 1-1047, will answer inquiries.

Auxiliary Plans Taste of France Hospital Benefit

Flower carts, a replica of the Eiffel Tower, and original oil paintings will be a part of "A Taste of France," Pinkie benefit sponsored by Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

Pinkie is a small hand puppet which is given to each child admitted to the hospital.

The event is Wednesday, Sept. 27, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Three exhibitors of French wines will show various types and vintages from the vineyards of Bordeaux, Burgandy, and the Moselle. French cheeses and breads will also be served.

An exhibit of 37 original oil paintings from France, Germany, and Greece will be displayed by Trumf Art of Los Angeles, and one of the paintings has been donated to the Auxiliary as a prize to be given that evening.

Accordion music will be furnished throughout the evening by Bill Cosby.

Mrs. Ben Smith is in charge of the affair, and anyone wishing tickets may call FA 8-5138. Tickets are by reservations only and should be in by Friday, Sept. 22.

Unitarian Service

Services of Pacific Unitarian Church and school will be held at Miraleste School beginning Sunday, Sept. 17. Services will continue at Miraleste until October.

Miss Gish Plights Troth In Candlelight Wedding

Recently returned from a week's honeymoon to Big Bear and Las Vegas, are newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Brent Gray Scott, who were married Sept. 2.

Mrs. Scott is the former Linda Gish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis D. Gish of 22704 Date Ave., Torrance. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Scott of 1104 Del Norte, Pomona.

The couple were wed in an evening ceremony at Seaside Community Church, with Rev. William Schatz officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a dress of white chantilly lace with long sleeves and rounded neck. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Maid of Honor Miss Sandi French wore a gown of French emerald green taffeta and carried petal pink roses. Bridesmaids, gowned in petal pink taffeta gowns and carrying red roses, were the Misses Sandra Arrant and Sherrie Scott.

Groom's Attendants
Gary Howard was best man and ushers were John Campbell and Fred Wholman.

Mrs. Gish wore a dress of green sateen with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a mocha-brown chiffon dress.

The new Mrs. Scott is a 1961 graduate of South High in Torrance. She is employed by Revels Bros. Bakery. Her husband graduated from North High in 1959 and is presently in the U. S. Army.

MRS. BRENT GRAY SCOTT
... The former Linda Gish

INSPECTING AND ADMIRING the painting to be raffled off at their charity party this month are members of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. Pictured are Mmes. J. E. Kimble, W. C. Boswell and R. A. Bingham, with Fred Trumf, Los Angeles artist.