Board Members, Faculty, Parents Have Coffee Hour

With latch string out, the Board of the 223rd Street School greeted parents and faculty at a morning "Get Acquainted" coffee Sept. 19 in the auditorium of the school.

In a brief business meeting Mrs. Ralph Robertson, president, announced actions of the board at an earlier meeting. She stated the annual membership drive is slated for Oct. 2 to 9.

The year's festival will be Oct. 28. Committees have been charge of door prizes.

Guests were taken on a tour of the maternity floor, following the tea.

set up and preparations are being handled by Mrs. Duane Witty.

Three new board members were ratified by the membership. They are Mmes. Clifford Bergon, chairman of registration; James Harger, chairman of hospitality and public relations; Y. Martin, co-chairman of health committee.

Participating in the city-wide Community Chest drive, 223rd Street School PTA will be represented by Mrs. Clifford Grevier. Mrs. Robertson stressed the importance of the community chest and asked all members to lend support.

Principal Mrs. Marie Lorenz introduced the teachers to the group. Parents had opportunity to meet them individually during the coffee session.
