Evangelist Series Continues at Tent

Evangelist Gerry Hardy, speaker at The Big Bible Tent, Sepulveda at Hawthorne Blvd., reports features, such as personal appearances of radio artists, a chalk artist, color slides and lectures on vital subjects will be held this weekend.

Friday night at 7:30 the King's Herald will give a musical program. These four ministers of song and musical support to the radio messages of H. M. S. Richards, Voice of Prophecy Speaker. The group includes Bob Edwards, first tenor; John Thurber, second tenor; Wayne Hooper, baritone and arranger; and Jerry Dill, bass.

Hardy said attendance at The Big Bible Tent has been running about 300 people during the week and between 500 and 600 on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

Subjects for this weekend will be: Friday, "The Great Judgement Day;" Saturday, "Which Day Shall Christians Keep?" Sunday, "The Millennium."

Next Tuesday "Evolution's Greatest Enemy," Wednesday "Suicide on the Installment Plan," will be topics. All meetings begin at 7:30 p.m.

Pastor Glenn Goffar of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church has invited Hardy to speak at the regular weekly service Saturday morning at 11 a.m. Hardy is speaking on "The Power of Prayer."

Announce Date of Cardinal's Party For Children

The Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children will be held this year in the Beverly Hilton International Room Dec. 17 at 2 p.m.

Invitations are in the mail this week to patrons, patronesses and co-sponsoring organizations.

The event is the only party each year personally sponsored by His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre. His guests of honor are tots from orphanages, nurseries and Catholic foster homes.

Proceeds provide a happier Christmas for thousands of Southland needy families through the Cardinal's Christmas Giving Program.

It is through generosity and auspices of patrons and co-sponsoring organizations that the party's purpose is, providing Christmas funds for the poor, is achieved.

Last year 13,623 children and adults throughout Los Angeles, Orange, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties received Christmas assistance as a result of the party. Total receipts last year amounted to $33,439.

Contributions may be sent to the Cardinal's Christmas Party, 1400 W. Ninth St., Los Angeles 15. Donors will be acknowledged in the party program. All donations are tax deductible.

Temple Delegates Attend Assembly

Temple Menorah of Redondo Beach, led by President George Lewison and Rabbi Henri E. Front, will be among 46 Reform temples represented Oct. 9, when Rabbi Jay Kaufman, national vice president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, is welcomed to the Southland.

Occasion will be the season's first Assembly of Delegates for the UAHC Pacific Southwest Council, which will install 1961-62 officers in the Jewish Community Building, 590 N. Vermont Ave.

Offices Filled at Baptist Church

Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church of Lomita filled nearly 200 offices Wednesday night. These are volunteer workers who will teach in the Sunday School, serve as leaders and sponsors in the Training Union, serve in the W.M.U. and Brotherhood. A record number of people have been asked to serve during the current church year.

Sunday will be observed as Laymen's Day in the local church. Loman Carter is president of the Brotherhood, laymen's organization in the church. The laymen will be recognized for their contribution to the church. The Pastor's message will be "Man-Blockade, Blockbuster a Blessing."

Use Press classified ads to buy, rent or sell. Phone DA 5-1515.

Ice Cream Social Planned at Church

An Old Fashioned Ice Cream Social will be held Sunday, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean Avenue. Home made ice cream will be served on "all you can eat" basis, together with cake and coffee.

Slides on Pilgrim Pines Camp near Yucaipa will be shown, and full details relating to the All-Church Family Retreat to be held Nov. 4 to 5 will be available.

Carl Binford is general chairman for this event, which is sponsored by the Stewardship Committee.
