

Warrior Eleven Clobbers Weber, 44-0

PRESS Sports

Winter leagues at Gable House are under way and most bowlers are battling it out already to see who will have the strongest and most consistent team to win first place.

MORE ON MONDAY NIGHT
To prove my point, take for example the ATZGB Girls who bowl at nine. Teams six, four, and two are tied for first place with six wins and three losses. Team eight is in second place with five and four.

This eight team league is a three point 100% team wise league. Total team averages (four girls per team) range from 378-545. There are individual averages ranging from a 63 to 161. But with the 100% handicap, it will be hard to say who will win until the last pin has fallen.

Team six (Pizza Palace) members are D. Smith, C. Baument, V. Orr, and J. Hunt.

Team four are D. Davidson, A. Rivers, L. Stanley, and B. Page. Team two are M. Caprio, K. Towles, L. Harmon, and G. Hoppe. Team eight are A. Rothstein, S. Lerman, G. Fraser, and J. Etcheverry.

Weekly high series and game holders are G. Hoppe, 502 and L. Owens, 177. More on this league at a later date — this reporter will be watching to see what happens.

The Monday Nite Mixed Five league which bowls at nine is also a three point, 100% team wise league. It has ten teams.

Team one is in first place with five and one. Team five is next with four and two. Teams seven, eight, two (Spirit Shop), three (Slim's Slopers), and nine (Kool Kats) are all tied with three and three wins and losses. This league has just started, so more can be told later.

Team totals range from 620 to 798. Individual averages are good. One and five members are as follows: R. Lamp-laugh, J. Pillen, R. Follick, and M. and B. Strock; J. and B. Hansen, E. and H. Liston, and H. Bernhard.

Weekly high scores are MHS, B. Cowell, 577; MHG, R. Follick, 203; WHS, P. Johnson; and WHG, J. Cowell, 189.

It may be a little premature to mention new leagues, but it will be interesting to see what progresses.

Jerry Homel makes an announcement to the ladies who bowl during the day leagues that his first scheduled party will be the first week in December. Homel plans to present the hair and fashion show, refreshments, and other entertainment on a Sunday afternoon in the Rik-Sha Room. This way, he hopes that the husbands will baby sit.

THREE LADIES — ONE GENT
Sorry to report that only three lady scores and one man score was turned into me last week. First, Pee Wee Murphy, Bowling Bags No. two, a hot 223 scratch game while Norma Fraser on Bowling Bags one shot a 210. Billie Faver of the Tuesday Morning Sandbaggers No. two league converted the 6-7-10.

One man score to print. During open play last week Steve L. Harold shot a terrific 255 game. Guess he had to show his wife, Pat, that he could do it after she won twelve free games on ladies day last Monday morning with the colored pins.

BIG DAY FOR OVER 50'S
On Sunday afternoon, Gable's 50 and Over Club visited and bowled at the Midtown Bowl in Los Angeles. Mr. Morris, manager, turned over his establishment to our group. There was coffee and donuts served, then there were four big trophies waiting for high series, high game, and one for the low bowl winners.

Bill Hill won the low-bowl trophy. Men's high series and game were taken by Alvin Henning, 599 and O'John Fosse, 226. Lady winners were Helen Shively, 538 and Bea Freiberger, 197.

Everone had a grand time and were very pleased with the wonderful hospitality they received.

Gable's Club plans to make another trip to the Tri-Angle Bowl on Pomona Blvd. on Sunday, October 15 at 1 p.m.

Ruth Caudle invites all people in the area to join them as spectators or a bowlers. They are certainly welcome.

EVERGREENS
Fall is an ideal time to plant native evergreens since the soon-to-follow rains will help get them established and by next spring you can largely ignore them.

What many a gardener doesn't realize is that natives are not used to attention, and too much kindness can kill them. At the start, they take moisture, but after the first few months they can usually take it or leave it alone.

Veteran ECC Coach Will Replace Stricken Verry

Doug Essick, veteran El Camino College physical education instructor, will take over reins as head coach of the Warrior football team during the absence of Norm Verry, now recovering from a cerebral hemorrhage.

Essick is in his thirteenth season as a mentor of the Warrior grid staff, having served as assistant coach under Verry for the past 12 years. He was an indispensable aid in turning out championship teams in '52 and '54 for El Camino.

While attending Inglewood High School, Essick was named All-Bay League in football. He also won the Dr. Holley Award in 1940 as the outstanding athletic scholar, receiving a gold watch as his prize.

USC ALUMNI
At the University of Southern California, Essick played football under Jeff Cravath as an end during the '41, '42 and '46 seasons. The rugged griddier was chosen captain of the Trojan team in his senior year and was a leading candidate for All-Coast end.

From 1942 to 1946 he served in the United States Air Force as athletic instructor at Buckley Field, Denver, Colo.

Upon graduation from USC in 1947, Essick returned to his high school alma mater, Inglewood, where he coached for two years before coming to El Camino.

Until the past several years, when he determined to devote an increased amount of his time to football and physical education classes, Essick coached the Warrior baseball nine.

He will be assisted in his gridiron duties by two regular members of the coaching staff—both products of Warrior coaching—Don Jurk and Ken Swearingen. Third assistant will be Paul S. Manahan, former coach at Inglewood High School and physical education instructor at El Camino College for the past several years.

Coach Essick, a native Californian, is now residing with his wife and two children in Palos Verdes Estates.

Quarterback John Torok General's Team To Outstanding 28-0 Halftime Score

Effective ground strategy under the able direction of Coach Doug Essick, named last week to replace stricken Norm Verry, gave the El Camino Warriors a thumping 44-0 victory over badly outclassed Weber College of Utah last weekend.

Saturday's session marked the first showing of the talents of Essick who will hold down the top spot while Verry is recovering from his sudden illness.

The veteran ECC coach was stricken in Nevada while returning by plane from a pre-season game.

Warriors were never threatened during the one-sided contest on the El Camino field. ECC's tribesmen racked up four TD's plus conversions in the first session to bring the half time score to 28-0.

In the second half, Warriors again hit the scoreboard with two TD's, conversions and a field goal.

Outstanding action of the game was provided by John Torok's quarterbacking.

With a series of handoffs, Torok led his team in a 65 yard ground gaining drive from the first kickoff. Three of the four first downs were picked up by Jim Allison while the Fullback Lou Rizzo blasted through the Weber line for the first tally. Kurt Altenberg sweated out the conversion.

Entire action took just three minutes.

ACES
On hand will be such ace drivers as four-time Ascot winner Billy Cantrell, of Anaheim in the famed Morales Bros. No. 25 Offie, the "Tallma Wagon," three-time winner Allen Heath of Northridge; double winners Bobby Hogle of Buena Park, Jack Brunner of Gardena and Johnny Wood of Hollywood, plus others like Colby Scroggins of Eagle Rock, Ray Douglas of San Gabriel, Art Pratt of Escondido and Louie and Boby Unser of Montebello.

The pair of veterans, Cantrell and Heath, have been the scourge of sprint car racing in the west of late, especially at Ascot where they have won the last eight out of nine main events between them. One of Cantrell's wins was a USAC midget victory over the 1961 Indianapolis winner A. J. Foyt.

7-TURN TRACK
Saturday night's races will see the lightweight machines racing on a new seven turn T.T. course in the infield, highlighted by a seven-foot high steeplechase jump. The big Class A machines will race on the one-third mile clay flat track, as they did last week.

Other riders entered include: Chuck Dimond, San Diego; Ed Worth, Manhattan Beach; Donnie White, Glendale; Calvin Rayburn, San Diego; Johnny Ray, Wilmington; Stu Peters, Encino; Eberhart Zimmerman, Redondo Beach; John Daily, Riverside; Joe Gabey, Torrance; Tom Peterson, Redondo Beach; and Richard McQuine, Redondo Beach.

Western Speedway is located at 139th and S. Western Ave. in Gardena.
