Furnishing Show
Discount Tickets
Available at Von's

Officials of Von's and Shopping Bag markets announced this week that special reduced price tickets to the 12th Annual Home Furnishings Show are available at the check-out counters at all stores in the chain.

A 35 cents saving is provided to holders of these special tickets when presented at the box-office of the Pan Pacific Auditorium during any day or evening of the Home Furnishings Show engagement.

The show opens Oct. 15 and will be open from 1 to 11 p.m.

The reduced price Home Furnishings Show tickets are available free, according to company officials who declared that no purchase is required to receive the tickets. A sufficient number may be obtained for each member of the family simply by asking at the check-stands in all Von's and Shopping Bag stores.

Visitors will see the latest ideas and innovations in home decorations in spectacular room settings. The show theme, "Highlights in Design," assures spectators a vast array of home furnishings and decorations that run the gamut from period and Oriental to modern and contemporary. Show officials announced there will be a special Shopper's Bazaar to give

STL Men
Recognized
For Work

The U.S. Air Force today gave recognition to two members of the technical staff at Space Technology Laboratories, Inc., for their work in establishing the unique management control system known as DYNAMO, now in use by the Air Force to resolve problems of ballistic missile site activation.

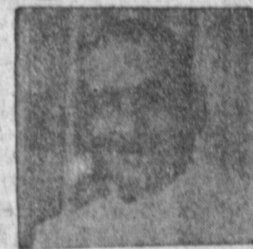

The two were STL's James L. Farrell, DYNAMO Project Manager, who resides at 27447 Fawnskin Drive, Palos Verdes Estates, and Assistant Project Manager John J. Whalen, of 408 West Terrace Drive, Altadena.

The Recognition came in the form of Air Force Scrolls of Appreciation presented by AF Major General Don R. Ostrander, vice commander of Ballistic Systems Division, USAF Systems Command, during a ceremony at BSD headquarters in Los Angeles.
