The low accoustical ceiling covers the brightest — most complete market area available.

Everything easy to find... easy to handle and easier still to pay for because we have seven 'check-outs'. And our 'checkers' are trained, experienced in expediting your marketing with courtesy and friendliness. Box boys quickly and efficiently (and carefully, too) prepare your packages for carrying. Or they will be most happy to assist you in packing them into your car if necessary. Wonderful, crispy produce and vegetables purchased directly from the Los Angeles Market will always be on hand for selection! Frozen Foods, and delicatessen bearing most popular labels are priced way down... plus You have the enjoyment of purchasing your freshly cut meats "from the butcher" himself. NO PACKAGE MEATS here. Everything is butcher-served.
