Chest Advance Campaign Will Get Underway

Torrance Community Chest Advance Gifts campaign started this week at a meeting in the Palms Restaurant in Torrance. Advance gift goal this year in Torrance is $32,836.

Overall chest goal for the Harbor Area has been set at $102,400.

Advance gifts are received mainly from professional people such as doctors, lawyers, dentists and others.

Chairman of the meeting and advance gift chairman for Torrance, John Pellerin, said that this is the United Way to raise funds for 170 different health and welfare agencies.

Pellerin urged volunteers attending the meeting to start solicitation of their prospective contributors immediately.

"By starting our part of the campaign while it's still fresh in our minds," Pellerin said, "we will be able to reach our quota and make a short campaign."

Chase Attends Bank Convention

R. C. Chase, president of Marina Federal Savings and Loan Association, attended the 18th Annual Convention of the National League of Insured Savings Associations.

Representatives from the entire nation were in attendance and the convention featured committee, general session and panel activity. An address given by Harry S. Schwartz, assistant vice president of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco set the pace for the theme of the gathering.

His address was entitled "Changing Structure of Financial Institutions."

A third office will be opened in the near future in Lawndale. Assets of Marina Federal are in excess of $40,000,000.
