

Ray Hovey, Jack Dallas Open New Chevrolet Dealership in Gardena

Adult School Has Classes On Survival

Unlike the Civil Defense courses which deal with the mechanics of the movement of people, clean-up and hospitalization, Torrance Adult School will be offering a new course, "Individual and Family Survival," which began Monday at South High and will begin tonight at Torrance High.

Those enrolling in the new course will study the psychological aspects of the problems which arise during the time of disaster. It is intended to help people realize that if they are to exist in times of emergency, they must first learn not to panic but to calmly think about "what to do" in case of emergency.

Courses are being offered in cooperation with the State of California and federal government and will be taught by Grant C. Jones, science teacher at South High. Each class will meet

Nov. 1 Set as Deadline for Alumni News

Newly appointed editor of the El Camino College Alumni News, Miss Geraldine Bender, has set a Nov. 1 deadline for news and addresses of college alumni publication.

This deadline will enable Miss Bender to circulate the publication in time for all former students to receive information concerning Homecoming activities on campus Nov. 9 to 11.

Former students having appropriate news items or wishing to have their names added to the mailing list of Alumni News are invited to write W. A. Kamrath, El Camino College.

Miss Bender stressed importance of deadline so that as many people as possible may be served before Homecoming events.

Alums who have received previous copies of the News need not repeat their request for the publication unless a change of address has been made.

A June graduate of Gardena High School, Miss Bender is now enrolled in her first semester at El Camino and in the college press bureau laboratory.
