

United Nations Day Program Scheduled

In tribute to faith in the United Nations, the Harbor Area American Association for the U.N. will present Los Cancioneros Saturday evening at 8 p.m.

The program will be held in San Pedro High School auditorium.

In addition a chorus of children from this area will sing. Mrs. Thomas Moylan will direct.

Karl Bertil Erikssen, vice consul to the United States from Sweden, will receive a scroll presented to his nation in memory of the late Dag Hammarskjold.

Miss Joyce Jacobowsky, director on the National Board of AAUN, and Dr. Carl Christol of the University of Southern California, will outline issues presently confronting the U.N.

Kirsten Anderson of Sweden and Martha Burror of Brazil, foreign exchange students at Sand Pedro High, will be introduced.

Chairmen for the event are:

San Pedro, Mrs. Henry Phillips; Lomita, Mrs. Wendell Miller; Wilmington, Mrs. Mary Peewoeller; Palos Verdes, Mrs. Edward Horkey.

Students from Lomita are Teenat Taugir, Pakistan, and Salvatore Gisbert, Spain.

Students from Palos Verdes are: Laura De Morales, Brazil; Peter Binnenkatle, Germany; Marco Morelli, Italy; Satochi Hinata, Japan.

Miss Connell Elected Head By ECC Women

New vice president of the Associated Women Students of El Camino College is Miss Barbara Connell, 5309 Onyx, Torrance.

Miss Connell is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy. She's majoring in German at El Camino and also president of Chi Theta Chi sorority.

Miss Maureen O'Donnell, 2423 West 164th Street, Gardena, won the post of sophomore vice president, in a run-off election.

Miss O'Donnell, an alumna of Gardena High School, is a political science major. She will serve on the sophomore board, under Ed Wood, sophomore president, who was elected last spring.

Other elective posts filled in recent fall elections are: Miss Diane Scott, Manhattan Beach, AFS president; Miss Diane Cannon, Inglewood, AWS secretary; Miss Karen Harrelson, Inglewood, sophomore treasurer.

Also Mel Bolton, Hawthorne, freshman president; Jerry Freeman, Inglewood, freshman vice president; Miss Bridget Walsh, Manhattan Beach, freshman secretary; Miss Laura Moore, Manhattan Beach, freshman treasurer, and Bob Rose, Redondo Beach, AMS treasurer.

The post of AWS treasurer was garnered by Miss Marie Gantner of Manhattan Beach.

Robert Hens of Belgium, is studying at Wilmington. Los Cancioneros will be directed by Lyle Heck.

The group will sing show tunes, including songs from "Music Man," "Porgy and Bess," and "The Sound of Music."

Negro spirituals, arranged by Robert Shaw and Jester Hairston, will be sung.

Ushers, dressed in native costumes will be: Mmes. Dolly R. Antony, Philippines; Chin Hoy, China; M. T. Lara, Mexico; Carlos Gurrola, Mexico; Michell Gusha, Yugoslavia; Lorraine Stern, Japan.

Also Misses Inger Weiberg, Norway, and Carole Peterson, Sweden.

President of the association is William Doheny. Vice presidents are Robert W. Dunn and Richard Hughes.

Miss Frances Dastarac is recording secretary. Mrs. Leonard Thompson is corresponding secretary.

Auxiliary League Of Southwood Sponsors Party

Southwood National Little League Auxiliary held open house Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Owens, 5017 Carson St., Torrance. The event was a Tupperware Party to raise funds for the little league.

Hostesses for the party were: Mmes. John Rounsell, Noah Waller, Fred Johnson, Steve Haston, John Schulman and Jim Hoover.

Others were Mmes. William Koloziejczak, Paul Sampson, Lloyd Green and Leo Gallup.

Members of the auxiliary will be guests at Helms Bakery in Culver City, Thursday. Group will leave from the home of Mrs. Robert Rothwell, 21808 Evalyn Ave., Torrance.

Special Classes For Expectant Parents Begin

Classes for expectant parents will begin Thursday at 1 p.m. in Torrance Health Center, 2300 W. Carson St., Dr. B. A. Kogan, district health officer, announced.

The seven-session series will be conducted by Mrs. J. Mendoza, public health nurse-instructor. Hygiene of pregnancy, childbirth, and care of the newborn child are some of the topics of discussion.

A motion picture of an actual delivery and others on child care will be shown.

These classes are an educational service of the Los Angeles County-Health Department.

They were organized for the patients of private physicians and to supplement his teachings. In no way do they take the place of early and adequate prenatal care.

The consent of the private physician is needed to continue the class.

Call classified, DA 5-1515.

ALL DRESSED UP in Halloween costumes are members of the Walteria School PTA who are preparing for the annual carnival. Left to right are: Mmes. Willie Allen, Henri Pernot, Don Moore, Principal V. U. Kilburn, Mmes. Robert Schrauben, John Helms and Claude Creasey. There'll be games, refreshments and entertainment on the school grounds from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. Saturday.
