

Pilot Club Has Sale, Sponsors Brownies

Pilot Club of Torrance will hold its second annual rummage sale Saturday at 1333 Post Ave.

Sale will be from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Proceeds from the sale will be used for the Pilot Club scholarship fund, which provides a cash award to a graduating high school girl for use in furthering her education.

The Pilot Club is a classified service club comprising business and executive women of the area who devote their time and support in an effort to serve the community well.

Brownie Troop 2076, sponsored by the Pilot Club, held its annual Halloween party at the home of their leader, Mrs. Joan Phipps Luup.

Introduction of the new co-leader, Mrs. Donald Fowler, highlighted the evening of dancing, games and refreshments.

Joining in the activities were: Glenna Briney, Christine Bundy, Nancy Dexter, Joy and Jan Fanning, Cheri Fowler, Linda Hawthorth, Judy Jablonski.

Also: Jan and Cindy Lee, Sue Ann Luup, Pamela Lyman, Jean McDonald, Becky Rogers, LeAnna Smith, Terri Wise and Vivian Zimmock.

The girls received their one-year Brownie pins which were hidden in candy filled pumpkins.

Begin Spanish, French Classes For Children

Spanish and French classes for children aged four to twelve will be sponsored by the Palos Verdes - Rolling Hills - branch of American Association of University Women.

The classes will begin in the near future. This is the third year the classes have been sponsored by the AA-UW unit.

For further information call Mmes. Wilfred Peddie, TE 3-5446 or Robert Ferguson, TE 1-2166.

Whirlers Ride In Third Benefit Show Sunday

Wagon Wheel Whirlers will sponsor their third annual benefit horse show Sunday.

The event will be at Empty Saddle Club, Rolling Hills and Empty Saddle roads, Rolling Hills.

Eighteen displays will be scheduled during the day, the first beginning at 9 a.m.

Events will be for all classes, from novice to accomplished equestrian in both western and English horsemanship.

The Bay Area Exceptional Children's Foundation will benefit from the show.

Colors will be presented at noon by Four H Club and Wagon Wheel Whirlers members.

Food will be served throughout the day.

HANDSOME PLANT
In coastal gardens especially, the Artichoke not only produces its wonderfully edible buds for the table but makes a handsome plant in the garden as well. Inland, the bud development suffers from heat; but the plants themselves will thrive.

Seaside Church Women's Guild Meets Tuesday

Mrs. Robert Markham, missionary from Angola, Africa, will speak to the Women's Guild of Seaside Community Church Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Along with her message, Mrs. Markham will present slides taken while she was serving in that country.

Mrs. Markham, wife of an American board educator in Angola, recently returned to this country with her four daughters, after she was urged to leave Angola for their safety.

In conjunction with Mrs. Markham's presentation, the Women's Guild will prepare a packet for the children in Angola.

The project will consist of making doll cradles from salt boxes.

Small dolls will be sent with the cradles.

Women are requested to take scraps of cotton and flannelette material, yarn, thread, and ribbon to the meeting. These will be enclosed in the package, so the children can make clothes for the dolls.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mmes. Ted Costa and Carl Krohne.

Local Choirs Participate in Adult Festival

The annual massed adult choir festival sponsored by the Los Angeles Chapter of the Choral Conductors Guild will be held Sunday at 4 p.m. in First Presbyterian Church, 2000 South Figueroa.

St. Cross Episcopal Church of Redondo and Waveria Community Methodist Church will be among the 18 churches represented in the choir of 450 voices under the direction of Dr. Charles C. Hirt.

He is head of the church music department of USC and minister of music at Hollywood First Presbyterian Church.

The program will include works by Bach, Thomas Tallis, and Lawrence Curry.

A group of numbers will also be presented by the high school choir of Angelus Mesa Presbyterian Church, directed by David Lyman.

Event will be from 9:45 to 11:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. R. D. Turnacliiff, 1129 Grandvia Altamira, Palos Verdes Estates.

Functions of the league will be discussed by Mrs. Y. Shibuya, who will speak on the topic "Know Your League."

Persons desiring further information are asked to contact Mrs. Walter Peterson, FR 5-5737.

Scouts Combine Party, Work To Earn Rank

Girls of Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 2030, sponsored by St. Catherine Laboure Council found a way of working toward second class rank at a Halloween Masquerade party.

Chaperoned by Mmes. R. Flynn and William De Prez, the girls had their party Friday with the Golden Wing Patrol presenting a play.

Girls participating were: Susan Egnatuk, Christine De Prez, Virginia Cogbill, Kathy Dowling, and Judy White.

Games were planned by Daisy Patrol members, Pat Francis, Kathy Remlinger, Mary Kay Gunthner, Josette Condon, and Maureen Tyrrell.

The Butterfly Patrol composed of Kathy Van Hovan, Nordine De Prez, Lynn Kopang, Patty Flynn and Debbie McCabe, did all the decorating and cleaning up. Refreshments were supplied by mothers of the girls.

Services Will Honor Temple Members

New members of Temple Menorah will be honored at Friday evening services at the temple, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

Rabbi Henri E. Front will conduct the services with the assistance of Cantor Harry Newman and the temple choir, directed and accompanied by Mrs. Harry Newman.

Mrs. Edward Sokolski, wife of the temple's membership chairman, will bless the sabbath candles.

The Temple Board of Trustees will act as ushers and hosts for the evening.

Wives of board members will prepare and serve refreshments at the social hour following services.

Seventy families from the South Bay and Palos Verdes Peninsula will be consecrated into the congregation at this special service.

Those from Torrance are: Messrs. and Mmes. Edward Leventhal, David Rosenthal, Morris Waitz, Earl Brown, Seymour Bilowit, James Conto.

Also Mrs. Helen Davis, Messrs. and Mmes. Joseph Ehrlich, Joseph Eskenazi, Mark Frisman, James Galand, Philip Gorfain, Peter Guttman, Byron Jutovsky, Harry Kalfin, Clark Yates, Ralph Klein.

Herbert Sharlin, Raymond Shapiro, George Swartzman, Dr. Leon Wallace, Miss Rita Smith.

From Lomita: Mr. and Mrs. Abe Freiberg.

From Palos Verdes Estates: Messrs. and Mmes. Marvin Barab, Joseph Matelson, Paul Seide, Martin Simon; Herbert Wintraub, Dr. and Mrs. John Wasserman.

From Rolling Hills: Messrs. and Mmes. Ben Duben, Harold Gazin, Alfred Ganulin, Seymour Konopnik, Sidney Mobler, Ronald Schack, Philip Seideman.

From Hollywood Riviera: Messrs. and Mmes. Michael Dembo, Harry Kaplan, Ben Pollack, Milford Sussman, Albert Wolinsky and Mrs. Peggy Brotman.

WHAT WENT WRONG?
If your own Rose garden lacks color in this month of plenty, stop and consider what went wrong. Certain varieties bloom better in fall than others, it's true, and a quick look in your own neighborhood should turn them up.

A special project of the Hollywood B'nai B'rith and men's lodge is the Long Beach Veterans Administration Hospital, where members visit regularly to entertain the patients.

Narbonne Baptist Holds Service For Volunteers

Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita had a Dedication service for the volunteer workers in the church Oct. 22.

Over 150 workers were present to be installed in their respective tasks in the church sponsored organizations.

The Sunday School has 1,150 pupils enrolled.

The 115 in this organization are all volunteer workers from the congregation.

The choir groups were given membership pins at this special service. The largest of the three regular choirs, is the youth choir which meets each Sunday at 5:30 p.m.

More than 100 choir members are enrolled in the Junior, Youth, and Adult choirs.

The Junior Choir meets each Wednesday at 6 p.m. and the Adult at 8:30 p.m.

Edwin T. Isbell, church minister of music, directs these choirs.

bie McCabe, did all the decorating and cleaning up. Refreshments were supplied by mothers of the girls.

Prayer Power Topic of Talk

The power of prayer will be discussed in a free public lecture on Christian Science Sunday at 3 p.m. by Mary Wellington Gale of San Francisco.

A member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Mrs. Gale will speak in the church edifice, under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Her subject will be "Christian Science: Its Stabilizing Influence in a Changing World."

A native of Belmont, Mass., Mrs. Gale was educated at Smith College and the University of Chicago.

She has been an authorized teacher of Christian Science since 1952.

She has lecture throughout the United States, Canada and Europe.
