

El Camino Soph Selected To Be Homecoming Queen

Maureen Hayes will reign over El Camino College's Homecoming festivities, Karen Harrelson, chairman of the Queen's Committee, announced today.

Selection of Miss Hayes as queen and two princesses, Nancy Newman and Maureen O'Donnell, was made following the "Liberty Belles Banquet" held in the Campus Center Tuesday.

The 1961 queen is a member of Tri Phi sorority and the Associated Women's Student Board. Miss Hayes is presently serving as Commissioner of Activities on student council.

A sociology major at El Camino, Miss Hayes is a graduate of Notre Dame High School and is 19 years old.

The queen and her princesses will be officially crowned at a Homecoming Rally Thursday on the El Camino Campus.

First princess Miss Newman, 20, is a liberal arts major. She had been Sweetheart Princess and Chi Gamma Iota Princess during the spring semester.

SORORITY PREXY
Miss Newman is presently serving as Delta Sigma Chi sorority president and AWS secretary.

Miss O'Donnell, 19, was selected as third member of the court after close judging.

First Appearance For Governor

Governor Edmund G. Brown will make his first appearance in the 67th Assembly District on November 9. The meeting will be at the Keyboard Lounge at 12:15 p.m. Meeting will be a sponsored luncheon by Southwest Civic Organization and will be attended by sponsors and their guests.

Local Gasoline Dealers at Vegas

Torrance service station dealers and their wives convening in Las Vegas at the 1961 Mobil dealer convention included: Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bellante Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Lenassi and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Nelson.

Held at the Convention Center Nov. 1 and 2, the conclave attracted over 2000 people from 26 states. Another such session for dealers from the eastern half of the country is scheduled in New York state, Nov. 8 and 9.

Dealers from the mid-west, south and far-west were featured on the program, giving other dealers the benefit of their experiences in the areas of station management and business building.

Theater Bus Trip Is Scheduled by

A theater bus trip to the satirical musical revue "Second City" will be conducted November 10 by the Torrance Recreation Department.

The show takes its name from a Chicago cabaret where it was originated and includes just seven performers, who are also the creators of the sketches that make up the revue.

Tickets at $4.50 and $3.75 may be obtained by telephoning the Recreation Department at FA 8-5310. Deadline for paying for reservations is November 7.

The theater bus will leave at 7:15 p.m. from the parking lot at Torrance City Hall, 3031 Torrance Blvd. Bus fare is included in the ticket price.

Warwhoop Staffers off To Collect '61 Award

En route to Miami Beach, Florida, today to attend the Associated Collegiate Press convention and accept the Pacemaker Award are El Camino College Warwhoop staff members W. A. Kamrath, commissioner of publications; Wayne Overbeck and Editor-in-Chief Gregg Peterson.

Official voice of the college, the Warwhoop was awarded the Pacemaker Award as one of the five top collegiate newspapers in the United States. Other papers to receive the honor will be publications of the University of Wyoming, University of Miami, University of Mesa, and the University of San Francisco. The award will be presented during the Associated Collegiate Press convention. The association has awarded the Warwhoop 15 consecutive All-American ratings, symbolic of newspaper excellence among junior colleges. Headquarters for the convention will be the Hotel Fontainebleau. Delegates from colleges and universities throughout the nation representing the publications staffs of their institutions will be in attendance at the convention.
