

Col. Nevils To Speak to Veterans

Colonel George W. Nevils, United States Marine Corps, will be guest speaker at a "Crusade for Americanism" program Nov. 29 at the Gardena Veterans of Foreign Wars Post, 1822 W. 162nd St.

He will speak at 8 p.m. on "Our American Heritage" and show a 15-minute film strip of the same name.

Colonel Nevils, upon retiring from the service, became director of public relations for the California Free Enterprise Association, an organization conceived and headed by Walter Knott of Knott's Berry Farm.

Bob King, who is in charge of the program to be presented in Gardena, said the meeting is being supported by veteran's organizations, service clubs, chambers of commerce and churches of Gardena and neighboring cities.

The Gardena program is a kick-off for the all-day "South Bay Crusade for Americanism" program to be held Nov. 25 at San Pedro High School.

Ted Bruinsma, chairman of the group, stated that the purpose of the South Bay crusade program is to educate and inform people of the threat of communism and revive their patriotism and concern for freedom.

A highlight of the all-day program will be a panel discussion featuring three men who have been behind the Iron and Bamboo curtains.

Excellence Award Presented to ECC Yearbook

First place award for general excellence was presented to El Camino College's 1961 yearbook, the Warrior, by Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the publications department announced this week.

The 27th annual association meeting was held Oct. 13 in New York City. Members of the board judged yearbooks from colleges and universities across the nation.

Under the direction of Joseph M. Murphy, New York University selected the ECC yearbook for the first place award from the junior college division.

The association commended the winning staff for "good headlines" throughout the book and gave high scores for photography, printing, campus coverage and layout.

Dave Stinson, Redondo Beach, and Sonja Ottenbacher, Hermosa Beach, edited the 1961 edition with a staff of ten section editors and seven photographers.

Members of the staff were Frances Young, Torrance; Chuck Ainsworth, Gardena; Vicki Reed, Inglewood; Gordon Weibe, Torrance; Violet Madrid Redondo Beach; Miss Nancy Bobo, Redondo Beach; Peggy Hundley, Torrance; Mike Welchler, Gardena; and Jack Minzey, Hawthorne.

Photographers were Ken Huthmaker, Hawthorne; Ken Whitney, Torrance; Gary Dufur, Inglewood; Gerald Ragsdill, Torrance; Ray Webber, Inglewood; Leonard Shultz, Inglewood; and Kik Yamamoto, Torrance.

Eugene Uht was adviser of the group.

Reward Offered For 'Pacemaker' Taken From Boy

A quarter-midget racer was stolen last Saturday night from Randy Brogren, age 8.

The racer, a purple Pacemaker, was parked in a neighbor's yard.

The Brogrens live at 21610 Reynolds, Torrance.

The racer was brand new and valued at $1000, Mrs. Brogren reported.

The Brogrens have offered a $100 reward for return of the racer.

Anyone having information may call FR 1-7002.

Come see me, I'm one of the finest homes near No. High. I have 3 bedrooms, hardwood floors & the incomparable luxury of wall to wall carpeting in my living room & hall. My owner will also include my nice draperies. My kitchen has dining area, plenty of cabinets, disposal & nice tile. No wife could ask for more convenience than I offer. I have a beautiful patio for enjoyable meals & outside entertaining. My compact yard make lawn & shrubbery fun instead of work, and it is fenced. I'm so proud because I've been kept real immaculate. I heard my owner say he'll sell me on FHA for only $17,500. That's what hurt my feelings cause I'm SURE I'm worth more.
