

Thanksgiving Parade Features NBC Stars

Three of the stars of NBC-TV's "Bonanza" color series will be among the showbusiness celebrities participating in Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and Circus, to be televised in color on NBC-TV Thursday, 9 to 11 a.m.

Lorne Greene, Dan Blocker and Michael Landon — who play three of the four Cartwrights in "Bonanza" — will be in the line of march.

Joe E. Ross, Fred Gwynne, Lori Martin, George Gobel, Sam Levene, Troy Donahue, Lionel Hampton, Martha Wright, Annette Funicello, Casey Stengel, Connie Francis and Robert Morse will also parade.

Buster Crabbe will join Lindsey Nelson and Ed Herlihy as emcees for NBC-TV's color coverage of the parade and circus.

Crabbe will be the ringmaster during the circus portion of the two-hour show and will get the comments of children in the reviewing stand as the giant balloons, scenic floats, entertainers, marching bands and other participants in the parade move down Broadway toward Macy's.

Lorne Green, Dan Blocker and Michael Landon will ride the parade route on horseback in their "Bonanza" costumes. They will lead a 12-man "Sheriff's Posse" from Greenwich, Conn.

Joe E. Ross and Fred Gwynne, stars of NBC-TV's "Car 54, Where Are You?" comedy series, will ride down Broadway in (what else?) Police Car 54.

They'll stop occasionally to lend their special brand of "assistance" to the real life men-in-blue policing.

Lori Martin, star of NBC-TV's "National Velvet" series, will ride the parade route astride her TV "co-star," King.

Troy Donahue, star of the "Surfside 6" TV series, will be the Prince Charming of the "Cinderella" float.

THE NEW BREED — A magician's prop is found by Billy Mumy and Elizabeth Patterson which leads police to a slayer in "Wave Goodbye to Grandpa," Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. on ABC-TV, Channel 7.

CHECKMATE — Vera Miles is guest star in "The Crimson Pool," portraying an old friend of Jeff Corey who is involved in an art forgery ring. Wednesday on CBS-TV, Channel 2 at 8:30 p.m.

Shari Lewis and Puppets Introduce "Tom Sawyer"

Ventriloquist Shari Lewis and two of her hand puppets, Lamb Chop and Hush Puppy, will introduce and comment throughout the motion picture presentation of "Tom Sawyer" Sunday, Nov. 26, and "Huckleberry Finn" Sunday, Dec. 3, 2:30 to 4 p.m. on KNXT, Channel 2.

As a special added attraction, the talented young television personality will be seen at the beginning of each film with eight minutes of imaginative material to introduce the children's classic.

"Tom Sawyer," starring Jackie Coogan, is an exciting adventure story containing a murder and a hunt for buried treasure.

The 1930 motion picture, based on Mark Twain's most beloved character, includes some of the most famous scenes in American literature.

Tom accepting prize possessions from the other boys in exchange for helping him whitewash the fence; Tom showing off before Becky Thatcher; and the return of Tom, Huck and Joe to listen to their own funeral oration, are a few of the scenes.

Junior Durkin is seen as whitewash the fence; Tom Huckleberry Finn, and Mitzie Green portrays Becky Thatcher.

Age of Kings Presents Sections Of Shakespeare's Henry IV Sunday

"Rebellion From the North," Acts I and II of Henry IV, Part I, will be seen on KTTV's Shakespearean series, "An Age of Kings" Sunday at 6:30 p.m. on Channel 11.

King Henry's intended crusade is broken off by rebellion at home.

His three former allies in the north, the powerful Percy family led by Northumberland; his son, Harry (Hotspur), and his brother, Worcester, are dissatisfied with the meager rewards they received for their aid to the new King and begin to mutiny.

In London, the young Prince of Wales angers his father by mixing with low companions, among them the fat knight, Sir John Falstaff.

Prince Hal, although intending to abandon this way of life and these companions, finds their allure irresistible.

Wearing masks, the Prince and his friends hold up and rob honest travelers by night at Gadshill in Kent.

TIME CLOCK

...for more than thirty electric "servants" who work for you at an hourly cost 21% lower than in 1939.

See those hands up there? They measure the kilowatt hours of electricity it takes to run the more than thirty electric appliances that serve the average California family. (A kilowatt hour of electricity will keep a 100-watt bulb lighted for 10 hours.)

What's so remarkable about a kilowatt hour? Nothing, unless you care how much you spend for things, as most of us do.

The average cost of electricity per kilowatt hour for Edison residential customers is 21% lower than in 1939.

Sure, your electric bill is higher now. That's because you are using more than twice as much electricity as you were in 1939. But your average cost per kilowatt hour is 21% lower.

The reason: more efficient methods of producing and delivering electricity, plus greater usage, have lowered your unit cost.

Electricity...always ready to brighten your nights, lighten your work, help you enjoy life more. What else serves you so many ways for so little cost?
