

Warriors Drive for Water Polo Title

Today's Meet May Clinch So. Calif. Championship For El Camino's Squad

Bidding for an upset win which would provide a sparkling finish to an already fine water polo campaign, El Camino College poloists will vie for the Southern California Championship at Cerritos in a meet ending today.

Already assured of a second place in the Metropolitan Conference, the Warriors will be up against the two top squads from all of the junior college water polo conferences in Southern California.

Favored, as usual, will be Long Beach, perennial Metro champ, who has a strangle hold on the Southern Calif. crown. Ranked immediately behind the Vikings will be Fullerton and two darkhorse clubs, host Cerritos and ECC.

Cerritos is competing in its first year of water polo, but boasts a rugged, aggressive squad capable of putting the skids to any of the more highly touted teams.

MEET FALCONS

ECC will meet the Falcons in the first round of the tournament.

Last year, the Tribe swept to a fourth place finish among the water polo elite in this tourney.

Warming up for the playoffs, El Camino ventured into the realm of the four-year colleges once again and absorbed a 12 to 5 licking at the hands of host Long Beach State on Wednesday.

As he has done in practically every game all season, Selden Clair topped the Warrior point-getters, connecting for four goals.

Happy Thanksgiving tomorrow to all my readers and to all patrons of Gable House.

TURKEY NEWS

Some Gable bowlers are very happy that they participated in the turkey shot these past weeks. For 50 cents a game, or three games for $1, everyone had a chance to win a nice bird to take its place on a festive table tomorrow.

Lucky winners include the following: C. Moore, Millard, B. Caudle, J. Kely, Lou Kohlmeier, George Handy, George Jeffers, Yasuda, Yarnan, O'Hara, G. Westlake, H. Lynch, Connie Dunn, P. Spencer, J. Kezon, Ken Anderson, W. Maciel, and M. Smith.

Even if you didn't win a free turkey, most of us can give thanks that we still have a glorious day.

If you don't feel like cooking your own dinner for the day, Gable will do it for you. "All you can eat" is the theme for the Rik-Sha Room Thursday from 2 to 8 p. m.

The menu will consist of roast Utah tom turkey with a savory dressing or baked Virginia ham with rum sauce, beautiful salad assortment, pumpkin pie and choice of beverage. Price for this delicious dinner will be $2.50 for adults and $1 for children under 16 years. Call now for reservations at FR 8-2265.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Congratulations to Louis Tabone "Chef Luigi" on his marriage last week-end. The bride and groom visited Las Vegas, where they tied the knot.

Congratulations to Betty Donahue for becoming a new grandma and, I might say, a very young grandma at the age of 37.

Daughter Pat Dilley gave birth to a baby boy on Nov. 2 at 10:23 a. m. at the Daniel Freeman Hospital in Inglewood. Little Daniel Edward weighed in a 7 lbs. 7 ozs. and it is reported now that baby, mother and grandma are doing well.

Three cheers to Hank Catalano of Norwalk and other areas for being one of the big backers for the Los Angeles Toros. The L. A. Toros return to the Jefferson arena on Dec. 1 to meet Omaha, and that means Buzz Fazio. Make your reservations now.

Received word that captain of the L. A. Toros, Steve Nagy, shot a perfect 300 game in the Chicago Invitational. Nice going, Steve.

Last but not least, thanks to all bowlers who crowded into Gable House again Sunday morning from 7 to 11 o'clock. See you all there again next Sunday and don't forget to bring your friends.

HIGH PINNERS

Last week's high pinners include the following: Ladies—Esther Friedman, Temple Menorah, 218; Ileen Joyce, 216; Paula Yates, Bowling Bags No. One, 212; Alberta Castleman, Bowling Bags No. One, 211; Betty Plante, 825 Traveling League, 211; Louise Lenarth, 205; and Joan Phillips, 825 Mixed Traveling League, 203.

Men—John Findlay, Sunsets, 258, and Doyle Holtzclaw, Merchants Handicap, 255. Juniors—Ray Zimmerman, 214; Ralph Krus, 214; L. Mobley, 213; and Mike Bowman, 204.

Splits converted included for the 6-7-10 are Ruth Marr, Bowling Bags No. One; Shirley Eck, Tuesday Mixed Five; and Curtis Williams in junior open play.

Have a happy day tomorrow.

Toros Cut Bowling Squad To Seven

Don Krause, 27-year-old member of the Los Angeles Toros bowling team, became a free agent last week. It was announced by Steve Nagy, player captain of the National Bowling League squad.

Waivers were asked on Krause Monday by the Toros. Since he was not picked up by any of the league's other nine teams within 48 hours the Milwaukee bowler automatically became a free agent.

"It was necessary to trim our roster to seven players," said Nagy in explaining the release of Krause. "With eight it was not possible to give them all enough work to keep their games sharp. I'm sure Krause himself would have been more effective if we had been able to use him more often."

Other members of the team are Therm Gibson, Don Glinski, Fred Riccilli, Dick Jensen, Billy Myers and Bill Guyett.

The Toros wound up a two-game series with Kansas City Wednesday night at Jefferson Arena, Culver City. They return to action locally next Tuesday night against Twin Cities.

DRIVING ACTION—Sparkling drives against a top-rated opponent last weekend gave a 33 to 19 victory to North High over the favored Redondo eleven. Win puts North in one of the favored positions to pick up the CIF title. Below, Sandy Reyes, Saxon Homecoming Queen, ruled over halftime festivities during the game. She was crowned during the game and was presented to the student body during the seventh annual homecoming dance, held in the cafeteria following the game.

Tickets on Sale

Tickets for the 16th annual Junior Rose Bowl Game December 9 have been placed on sale at numerous Southland locations, it was announced this week by JRB ticket chairman Pete Runyon.

Runyon reported that for the third straight year the main ticket office is located at Vroman's Book Store, 695 East Colorado Blvd., Pasadena, but that choice seats could be obtained at any of the outlets located in most major cities throughout the Southland.

ADVANCE SALE

"While our advanced sale has been heavier than it has been for the past five years," Runyon stated, "we still have thousands of good seats left in all categories."
