

Supervisor Discusses Plans For Reclamation of Water

Twenty-five percent of the water needed for the Los Angeles County metropolitan area can be obtained by reclaiming waste sewage water that is now being dumped into the ocean at the rate of nearly 600,000,000 gallons a day, according to an interim report on waste water reclamation submitted to the Board of Supervisors at the request of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn by John D. Parkhurst, sanitary district engineer and M. E. Salisbury, flood control chief engineer.

The interim report substantiated Supervisor Hahn's estimate of last September that it would be economically feasible and practical to salvage at least 300,000,000 gallons or about one-half of the total water that is dumped into the sea.

Top-Ranked ECC Matmen Meet Cal-Poly Saturday

Uppermost in the minds of championship-bound El Camino College matmen, who travel to San Luis Obispo Saturday at 1 p.m. is the annual Cal-Poly wrestling tournament.

Warrior grapplers brought their total to three consecutive victories by stomping Pierce College wrestlers 39-0 Friday. Other wins include one over Mt. San Antonio College and defending state champions, San Bernardino Valley College.

First to wrestle on Pierce College mats for El Camino was 123-pounder Ray Poque, who easily defeated Mitsuo Kanemoto 14-0, in initiating the "every one win cry" for the Warriors.

Andy Harris, at 130 pounds, literally won his match in the first two periods, defeating opponent John Owen 12-3 and John Arnold got both shoulders of Brahma wrestler Norm Parsons down for the count of three in 40 seconds of the second period of the 137-pound division to account for the Warriors.

Official team scores have not as yet been released. Don Holt, ECC matman, garnered first place laurels in the 147-pound division of the AAU Long Beach Olympic Development Wrestling Tournament and was also chosen as the outstanding wrestler. Grappling in the same weight class as Holt was teammate, John Arnold who took third.

Second place medals were awarded to ECC matmen Ray Poque in the 115-pound class, Don Dobrick at the 160-pound slot, Tim Lutz at 191 and Jerry Evans in the unlimited division.

Fourth place
El Camino team captain Dave Fiorelli grappled to a fourth place in perhaps the toughest weight class wrestled that evening. Fiorelli lost to Rahim Javanmard from Fullerton, who was unanimously nominated as the outstanding wrestler.

Warrior Basketball Team Meets Bakersfield Friday

Young, hustling and rugged on the boards, El Camino College eagles trek northward Friday to engage mighty Bakersfield in the third Metropolitan Conference battle for both clubs.

ECC began the chase for conference laurels by bopping supposedly rugged Harbor 77 to 61 Friday night on the loser's hardwood. Always dangerous Keith Erickson really sizzled against the Seahawks, sinking 22 points to lead all scorers.

Dan Karvas, marvelous in his playmaking role and also a stalwart on defense, supplied 17 markers while Mike Schrader tallied 12 to help Erickson administer the thrashing.

After winning 10 of its last 11 contests, including the consolation championship of the Sam Barry Tournament, Harbor was supposed to have a good chance of breaking a three-game losing streak against the Tribe.
