

SALUTE

Specialist Four James R. Shaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Shaffer, 1154 Renton St., Torrance, recently graduated from the Seventh U.S. Army Non-Commissioned Officer Academy in Bad Tolz, Germany. Specialist Shaffer received four weeks of training in various military subjects with emphasis on leadership and combat tactics. The purpose of the academy is to broaden the soldier's professional knowledge and to instill in him the self-confidence and sense of responsibility required of a capable leader. He entered the Army in June, 1959, and arrived overseas the following November. The 20-year-old soldier is a 1959 graduate of Phinas Banning High School in Wilmington.

Airman Third Class Theodore R. Clayton, son of Lewis R. Clayton, 18418 Doty Ave., Torrance, is being assigned to Malmstrom AFB, Mont., for training as an air policeman. He recently completed United States Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex. Airman Clayton was graduated from South High School.

PFC Richard P. Carbajal, 22, son of Mrs. Viola Lacy, 1424 W. 218th, Torrance, recently passed the Army's new physical combat proficiency test in Germany. The test, based on skills which require agility, coordination, strength and endurance, is designed to evaluate a soldier's physical capabilities and to determine whether an individual possesses the stamina which would be needed on a battlefield.

Carbajal, a gunner in Company E of the 8th Division's 505th Infantry in Mainz, entered the Army in June, 1958, and arrived overseas in January, 1959. He is a 1958 graduate of St. Mary's High School in Phoenix, Ariz.

Army PFC Jerome D. Thornell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Thornell, 18314 Avis Ave., Torrance, recently participated in a seven-day combat readiness test near Fort Greeley, Alaska.

During the test, which was designed to determine the individual and unit combat efficiency of Army units in Alaska, the 9th Infantry and various support units engaged in simulated combat maneuvers against an "Aggressor" force from the 23rd Infantry, Fort Greeley, the Army's northernmost post, is noted for its sub-zero temperatures and for the mountains and glaciers which surround it. Thornell is a policeman in the Yukon Command's Headquarters Company, which is regularly stationed at Fort Wainwright, more than 100 miles southeast of Fort Greeley. He entered the Army in January, 1961, completed basic training at Fort Ord, and arrived in Alaska last May.

Election Finds Lesser Chairman of SoCal Group

Leonard I. Lesser, M.D., director of The Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic is the new chairman of the Southern California group of the American Association of Psychiatric Clinics for Children. Elected secretary at the same membership meeting was Mrs. Zonia M. Tappeiner, a staff Psychiatric Social Worker at the clinic. The AAPCC is a national organization of child guidance clinics which has established standards of professional care in the treatment of emotionally disturbed or mentally ill children, and encourages their adoption by clinics throughout the nation.

The regional group consists of 6 member clinics and their staffs. They are: The PTA School Guidance Center (L.A.); The Long Beach Psychiatric Clinic for Children; The Mount Sinai Hospital and Clinic Division of Child Psychiatry; Children's Hospital Psychiatric Services; Pasadena Child Guidance Clinic; and The Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic.
