

Early Schedule Widely Accepted By Members of Lomita Church

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita began their Sunday evening services at a new time last Sunday. Attendance reflected a wide acceptance of the early schedule. Training Union begins at 5:30 and the evening service at 6:30. Youth Choir rehearsal will follow the service on Sunday night.

The new men's chorus sang at the evening service. These men will sing on the first Sunday night of each month.

The church is considering their new budget. During this week the laymen of the church are meeting with groups in homes to discuss the finance committee's proposals. The final group meetings will be conducted tonight. The budget will be presented to the church tonight. "Demonstration Day" will be Jan. 28. On this day every member of the church and Sunday School will be urged to sign a pledge for the 1962 budget. "All the Way in One Day," is their goal.

The annual foreign mission offering taken each year during December has gone beyond the adopted goal. It reached 40 per cent above the total raised last year.

Altar Society Installation Held at Parish

St. Margaret Mary Altar Society held their installation of officers for the coming year at the regular monthly meeting, Jan. 10, at the parish hall.

At a beautifully appointed table, with white chrysanthemums and gold leaves, the incoming and outgoing officers received white camellia corsages from Mrs. John View, installation chairman.

Installing officer was Mrs. Theresa Andrews. New officers are Mmes. Rico D'Ambrasi, president; John View, vice president; Paul Pettit, secretary; George Ciganovich, treasurer and Dan Kimbell, publicity chairman.

MEXICO FIRST

Mexico was first in the western world to receive the new art of printing. Its Spanish governor brought over an outfit in 1536, and Juan Cromburger of Seville was first to set up shop. The book, a work on Christian Doctrine, was issued in 1539.

ON DUTY

CAVE (MSL-1) and CAPE (MSL-2), on duty with the Pacific Mine Force are the only two inshore minesweepers in the U.S. Navy.

Church Crusade Launched by Dr. Cooper

A special revival crusade, beginning Sunday, Jan. 21, at 10:45 a.m. at the Torrance Foursquare Gospel Church, corner of Arlington ton and Sepulveda, invites the public to hear an outstanding speaker, Dr. Claude Cooper, author, statesman, and famous evangelist of Southern Rhodesia.

Dr. Cooper, a recent guest of Paul Coates program, conducted revival crusades in Southern Rhodesia for 24 years, and reported as one of the most outstanding crusades in the area.

Soon after arriving in the United States, Dr. Cooper received a cable urging him to return at once to head a coalition party and become a premier, but his decision was to continue in the ministry.

He is an author of three books and is regarded by international ministers as one of the world's foremost speakers. He was frequently referred to as the "William Jennings Bryan" of South Africa.

Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor of the Foursquare Gospel Church is pleased to present this outstanding personage to the Torrance area. Services will be held Tuesday through Friday at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday at 10:45 a.m. 7:15 p.m.

MEASUREMENTS

Measurements for the playing field of the new Dodger Stadium have now been definitely established. It will be a symmetrical ball park. The foul lines will measure 330 feet. Right and left center will be 380 feet and straightaway centerfield will be 410 feet. A ten-foot fence will form the outfield barrier.

Father and Son Program Will Take Place Monday Evening

Paul Hogan, lecturer of the Los Crusados Council of the Knights of Columbus, has announced that the annual "Father and Son" dinner program and "Sports Night" will be presented in the council chambers, 214 Ave. I, Redondo Beach, on Monday, Jan. 22, at 7 p.m.

Elbert Perry, youth committee chairman, and Hogan have prepared an interesting program for the fathers and sons who will attend the council event. James McMath, a scout for the Los Angeles Angels baseball club will present a film and describe scouting for a major league baseball club.

Awards will be presented to outstanding Bishop Montgomery High School athletes during the program.

SERIES BEGINS

Another of a continuing series of social and educational programs presented by the Holy Name Society of Nativity Church for the benefit and entertainment of parish members and the general public has been scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 27, William Fredericks, president of the society, announced this week.

Reservations are now being accepted for a dinner-dance to be held in the parish annex, Engracia and Arlington Avenues, in Torrance. The program committee consists of Al Schild, Charles Carlton, Charles Buchanan, Dick Olson, Dan Firth and Cy Bowen.

A catered dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m., and dancing to the music of the "Moon-glows" orchestra will follow. This will be the second appearance for the orchestra in a Holy Name Society event.

Presbyterian Church to Hold Annual Congregational Meeting

The Annual Congregational Meeting of the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd., will be held tomorrow night at 7:30. A potluck dinner will precede the meeting.

Mr. S. William Dowey will introduce the new financial drive before the brief reports of the organizations of the church are given. No pledges or workers will be solicited at this time.

The nominating committee report and election of church officers will then take place. Child care will be provided. All members of the church are urged to attend this important meeting.

Dr. R. Murray Jones will preach on "Evangelism" at the 11 a.m. worship service on Sunday, Jan. 21. Nursery care is provided. There will be only one service of worship on Sunday mornings at 11 until further notice.

All-Night Gospel Concerts Have Been Scheduled January 19, 20

For years the South and Midwest have been boasting of their "All Night" Gospel Concerts, which feature outstanding professional talent, singing until the wee hours of the morning.

Now, for the first time, the West Coast will also experience the thrill of these toe-tapping spirituals and inspirational hymns, presented in like fashion.

On Friday and Saturday, January 19 and 20, 1962, at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium, Gospel Concerts will present the first West Coast "All Night" Gospel Music Concert, featuring six professional groups.

These two concerts will bring back to California the famous Blackwood Brothers and Statesmen Quartets, who entertained over 6,000 people in Long Beach last September.

IN ADDITION

In addition to these two RCA Victor recording artists, the Harvesters Quarter from Charlotte, North Carolina and the Couriers Quartet from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania are being brought to California for a special appearance.

To complete the program, two Southern California favorites, the Songfellow Quartet and the Country Gentlemen will present their renditions of these unforgettable Southern style hymns and spirituals.

The concerts will commence at 8 p.m. and will continue until the early morning hours. On Saturday, January 20, a special program of California talent will be presented from 6 to 8 p.m.

ALL FATHERS

Every officer and man aboard the Pacific Mine Force ocean minesweeper Reaper became a father in April 1961—when the ship adopted Poon Kuen Kwak of Hong Kong, a child refugee from Red China.

First Dinner of the Year Will Be Served at Parish Hall Sunday

St. Catherine Labouré mothers will serve the first ham dinner for the year 1962, Sunday, in the parish hall at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance. Dinner will be served from 3 until 7:30 p.m.

Chairmen in charge of the dinner are Mrs. Frank Risica and Mrs. John Marlowe of second grade and Mrs. Irvin Gleason and Mrs. John Mulvihill of the seventh grade.

The menu will consist of baked ham, au gratin potatoes, string beans, lettuce salad, hot buttered rolls, and home baked apple pie. Tea, coffee and milk will be served.

Prices are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. The family rate plan is being used again and will give quite a savings for large families.

Mrs. Peter Lavelle, home and school chairman, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend and enjoy a delicious dinner.

Mid-Winter Show

Exotic plants and flowers in the South African and Australian Sections at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum in Arcadia will provide a mid-winter display of colors during January for Arboretum visitors.

The Arboretum, located at 301 N. Baldwin Avenue, is now open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on week days, and from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on week-ends. Admission is free.

Message Series Climaxed with Special Sermon

This coming Sunday the Rev. Richard C. Addison will climax his series of messages on "The Call of God" with a special sermon for youth: "A Life For God." The morning worship service will be in observance of Life Service Sunday, a Sunday set aside by American Baptist churches to emphasize the call of God to youth to dedicate themselves to life service for God.

The Community Baptist Church of Torrance is located at 925 West 223rd St. near Vermont Ave. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m. Services are at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The Women's Missionary Society of the church will meet next Tuesday, Jan. 23 at 7 p.m. Mrs. Carolyn Garcia will present a program of vivid pen sketches of the Special Interest Missionaries of the Harbor Baptist Association. The pen sketches will be rich in information about the missionaries and beautifully illustrated.

The four Special Interest Missionaries are: Rev. and Mrs. Michael Ray of South India, Miss Dorothy Wiseman of the Congo, Miss Edna Smith of Hong Kong, and Miss Eleanor Anderson of Mather School in South Carolina.

Women of the community are invited to attend the society meeting.
