

Ethel Waters to Perform at Child Evangelism Banquet

The Child Evangelism Fellowship of So. Calif. will hold its 25th anniversary banquet Jan. 30, 7 p.m. at Baces Hall, 1528 N. Vermont near Sunset in Los Angeles. The colorful event will mark a quarter of a century of working with children. The banquet center piece will be a beautiful six foot high anniversary cake, made of mache with tall candles marked with years of service for those present.

sixty countries and some 30,000 workers in all fifty states. Tickets are available for the banquet at $2 each from the Child Evangelism Fellowship So. Calif. office at 1726 Venice Boulevard, Los Angeles 6 or call RE 2-0139. The closing date for tickets is Jan. 26. The public is cordially invited.

Two years ago Mrs. Hazel M. Kuehn, interior design instructor joined the home economics department at El Camino College and brought with her a rich background in the field. In addition to her bachelors and masters degrees, Mrs. Kuehn has taken additional work in interior design. Building three homes for herself involved a great deal of creative planning.

The demand for interior design instruction has made it necessary to offer two day classes and one night class at the local college. Most evening students are adults, employed through the day. The majority of students take the course for application in their own homes. Several are married couples. Some are planning a career in interior decorating and are already in the business. "The key in furnishing a home is to know who is going to live in the home," Mrs. Kuehn related. "Many interior decorators today are taking this into consideration, to the extent of getting acquainted with the family before starting the plans for decorating the interior of a home. Color harmony pleasing to one individual may not be pleasing to another individual. We react to color differently. If it doesn't make a harmonious background, colorwise, for the home, then it is all wrong for that particular home, individuals who live in that home it may be lovely."

roundup were: Linda Clark, Diane Lippard, Marty Lehr, Dianna Brannon, Vicki Townsend, Louise Burton, Teresa Shivar, Janice Webb, Tracy Deliman, Andrea Tindley, Darlene Brady, and Lenore Mormino.

Defender of the troop was the mascot, Eimer, a German shepherd dog, who insisted on going on hikes and sleeping on the sleeping bags.
