City of Hope Chapter Gets Ready to 'Break The Banks'

A "Break the Bank" dinner-dance will be held by the Torrance Chapter of the City of Hope Saturday, Feb. 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the Palms Crystal Room, 1925 W. Carson St., Torrance. Chairman of the affair is Mrs. Celia Mandel; co-chairman is Mrs. Bert Lynn.

At the beginning of the chapter year, each member of the Torrance City of Hope was given a bank for which she was to be responsible. These banks will be broken and their contents counted and placed in a bag to be turned over to the chapter treasurer on the night of the dance.

Monies from the affair will be turned over to the City of Hope Foundation at Duarte during the April roll-call dinner held quarterly for the purpose of enabling the chapters to empty their treasuries.

Since April of 1961, the Torrance chapter has contributed $2,200 to the City of Hope. Mrs. Herman Weston is president of the local chapter.

Reservations for "Break the Bank" night may be made by calling either Mrs. Mandel or Mrs. Lynn.

Donna Lee Morgan Becomes Bride In Recent Baptist Ceremony

The Calvary Baptist Church in Gardena provided the setting for a recent ceremony uniting Donna Lee Morgan and Robert S. Keller, Rev. H. Earl Kuester officiated.

and Mrs. Eldon Morgan, 17002 Glenburn Ave., Torrance, chose a street length white nylon organdy gown. The fitted lace bodice was accented by a rounded neckline and three quarter length sleeves, while the bouffant skirt fell into graceful folds. Seed pearl hearts and sprays decorated the bridal bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Maid of honor, Miss Victoria Tiberg preceded the bride to the altar wearing an ice blue sheath dress. Her corsage was made up of white chrysanthemums. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Keller, 3169 W. 152nd Pl., Gardena. He was attended by his brother, Steven Keller, who served as best man.

Following a dinner reception held at a Gardena Restaurant, at which twenty-five relatives and friends attended, the couple left for a brief honeymoon in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The bride attended North High School, El Camino College and is a recent graduate of the UCLA extension Dental Assistant School. Her husband graduated from Leuzinger High School and attended El Camino College. They will reside in Gardena.
