$10,000 CAR

Tommy Ivo, nationally known television and movie actor, will exhibit his $10,000, four-engine dragster at the Winter Nationals Rod & Custom Car Show, slated for the Great Western Exhibit Center in Los Angeles, Feb. 1 to 4. Strictly an exhibition and show car, the 1800-horsepower creation is not eligible for class competition at drag strips since rules of the National Hot Rod Association do not permit use of more than two engines. But the sleek machine has attained speeds up to 170 mph on special exhibition runs.

was designed to provide the participating units with long range mobility training and to test their combat readiness.

Stone, a cook in Company B of the division's 4th Medical Battalion, entered the Army in July 1956 and was last stationed in Germany.

The 23-year-old soldier attended Vallejo High School.
