

HEADS CAMPAIGN — Torrance realtor Ken Miller accepts his appointment as city chairman for the 1962 Red Cross Campaign from George Post (left), chairman of the Torrance

Branch Board of Directors. Robert Lewellen (center) will direct the business division of the appeal. Miller was appointed at a recent leadership meeting.

Business and Civic Leaders of Torrance to Head Red Cross Drive

Torrance business and civic leaders will head the city's 1962 Red Cross campaign, according to George Post, chairman of the branch board of directors.

"We have been very fortunate in the type of leadership we have recruited this year," said Post.

City chairman for the $11,400 Torrance campaign will be Ken Miller, realtor. Miller is past president of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors and also is a member of the Torrance Planning Commission.

The appeal is broken down into business, commerce and industry, and residential divisions.

Robert Lewellen, owner of Lewellen Press, will direct the business solicitation. Clarence Clark of Bank of America will direct C and I volunteers.

THREE CHAIRMEN

Three chairmen are responsible for the residential campaign. They are:

Mrs. Alpha Larrieux, South Torrance chairman; James Cicchini, realtor, Central Torrance; and Don Robinson, district manager of Bekins Van and Storage Co., North Torrance.

Goal for the Los Angeles Chapter Red Cross is $3,320,629. Services provided by last year's fund were:

Collection and distribution of 163,757 pints of blood; 23,582 troubled families of servicemen; 1st aid, water safety, and home nursing to more than 69,000 individuals.

Nationally, the fund helped pay for:

Services to our Armed Forces, here and overseas; a coordinated, nationwide disaster service which costs

Red Cross millions annually for relief and rehabilitation, and programs for international mercy work.

SALARY HIKES

Moving ahead in his contract-signing chores, E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, Dodger vice-president and general manager, announced that John Roseboro, the club's number one catcher; Joe Moeller, a right-handed pitcher with a Dodger future, and Wally Heckel, highly-regarded infielder, had signed. Roseboro received a salary increase after hoisting his batting average from .213 in 1960 to .251 last year, in the run-batted-in, home runs department, enjoying the best season of his Dodger career. He drove in 59 runs and led the Dodgers in circuit smashes with 18, one more than Wally Moon.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY — Student Nurse Joan Donald, 1028 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance, joins Dr. Keith P. Russell, newly installed chief of staff of the California Hospital, in celebrating the hospital's seventy-fifth anniversary milestone. Founded in 1887, California Hospital was the first private hospital in the county. The 1962 year will be celebrated by many special events, climaxed by ground-breaking for a new $3 million wing and cancer center.

Tool Design and Upholstering Classes Offered

Torrance adults interested in either Basic Tool Design or Upholstering will find classes on both these subjects now available at Gardena Adult School, 1301 W. 182nd St., according to Principal William J. Johnston.

The class in Basic Tool Design will be offered on Monday from 6:30 to 9:30. It will cover a review of drafting techniques, preliminary layout of drawings, mathematical processes, technical information on types of tools, physical properties of metals, tooling, processes and materials.

All adults in industrial fields in this area, who might benefit from training and information available in this class, are invited to enroll.

Classes in upholstery are again being offered on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings from 7 to 9:30. The class includes shop and theory; upholstery of chairs, lounges, davenports, foot stools, etc.

Methods of springing, stuffing, covering, cushion and pillow making will be covered in the class. Adults interested in remodeling of any of these household furnishings will find this class of inestimable value.

Enrollment is possible at the adult school office, between the hours of 1 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.
