Area Chairman for Cancer Crusade Invites Torrance Residents to Aid

Mrs. Rex Hume of the Hollywood Riviera Section in the City of Torrance has been appointed as Area Residential Crusade Chairman for the American Cancer Society recently announced Mrs. James R. Friend, District 8 Residential Crusade chairman. She will coordinate residential crusade activities in the cities of Torrance, Waverly, Hollywood, Lomita, Harbor City and Gardena.

"Margarete Hume has been an active volunteer with the Society for over five years," stated Mrs. Friend. "She has been the originator of our 'Save A Mother' program and has appeared before many women's groups to bring them life-saving information. In this new role she will be striving for complete door-to-door coverage in the six cities of her area during the weekend of our American Cancer Society residential drive, April 7 through April 9."

ACTIVE MEMBERS
"Mrs. Hume is the Mother of two pre-school children. Both she and her husband have been active members of the Civilian Air Patrol. She is a member of the Women's Society of the Hollywood Riviera Metho-

Torrance Dental Assistants Are Invited to Meet

Regular monthly dinner meeting of the Centinela-South Bay Dental Assistants Society will be held tonight at the Cockatoo restaurant in Inglewood. Social hour will be held at 7 p.m. and the dinner will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Speaker for the evening will be Mr. Tom Schott, who has chosen as his topic, "A Place in Space." His talk will be illustrated with color slides.

All Torrance Dental assistants are cordially invited to attend. For dinner reservations call Lorraine Babcock at PL 6-1972.
