

ADMIRING ARTISTRY — Being praised for her skillful sewing ability as first place winner in the Torrance Women's Club Vogue sewing contest is Mrs. B. W. Roberts, seen here wearing her winning entry, a three-piece beige wool suit. Women casting

the approving glances are: second place winner Mrs. Leondrus Stamps, who took honors with her clay beige cotton suit and dacron print blouse; and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, wearing the pale blue brocade two-piece suit which placed third in the contest. (Press Photo)

Winners of Sewing Contest Announced by Woman's Club

Winners of the Torrance Women's Club, Marina District 18, CFWC, were chosen at Wednesday's meeting by judges Mrs. W. D. Norman, local adult school home economics teacher and Joanne Stark of Joanne's Yardage in Welteria.

Taking first place honors was Mrs. B. W. Roberts. For her outfit, she chose a three-piece beige wool suit with a reversible cape.

Mrs. Leondrus Stamps won second place by presenting her entry, a clay beige cotton suit and coordinated dacron print blouse. Placing third, Mrs. A. L. Pyeatt's entry was a two-piece suit of pale blue bro-

WINNERS JUDGED

Outfits were sewn entirely by the women and entries were judged on Appropriateness for club occasion; becomingness to wearer as to figure type, pattern and color; overall fashion effect; and proper accessories.

Mrs. Roberts, club home-crafts chairman, was in charge of the annual fashion contest. Club members modeled their entries at the meeting.

Magruder School Awards Honorary Life Membership

Philip Magruder PTA held its regular meeting, Feb. 14, 7:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria.

Founders' day program under the direction of Mr. Pat McManus featured a panel discussion on the founders' of Parent-Teacher Association. The panel included Patty Hill, Juanita Ramirez and Billy Sales, eighth grade students at Magruder.

The high light of the evening was the awarding of the honorary life membership to Mrs. Elroy Wittrock. Mr. Pat McManus also presented an orchid corsage to the proud recipient.

Mrs. Edwin Brown decorated a cake in honor of the occasion.

HONOR COUPLE

A dinner party at the Pen & Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach was given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Baker of Torrance in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Mills, who are visiting here from Madison, Wisconsin.

FRIENDLY TABLE

Hosting a seafood dinner at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes for a table of friends were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Keuser of Torrance.

Plans Underway for Southwood Little League 'Shamrock Ball'

The annual "Shamrock Ball" will be the main topic of discussion at Southwood Little League Auxiliary's monthly meeting on Wednesday, March 7 at the Sepulveda School Cafeteria, 4600 Merrill St., Torrance. Meeting will begin at 8 p.m. Members are urged to attend.

Many plans, already underway for the special dance, include musical entertainment by local group, "Don's Trio"—a unit consisting of saxophone, clarinet, accordion, electronic organ, electric guitar, and a vocalist; numerous door prizes will be awarded by Southwood merchants.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Members of the dance committee are: chairman, Mrs. Ray Cox; Mrs. Ralph Hogue, Ed Nicodemus, Robert Quinn, Lloyd Green, Steve Haston, Thad Males, Allan Butler, Fred Johnson, Victor White, Robert Rothwell, Marvin Davison, Joseph Dumont, Stan Sellers, Paul Sampson, and B. Kolodziejczak.

Proceeds from this dance will go toward the fund for maintaining the ball field, uniforms, balls, bats and other needed equipment.

Tickets can be obtained through major league team mothers, as well as last year's team mothers of the Coast and American leagues. Persons interested in attending may call Mrs. Ray Cox, FR 1-6706 or Mrs. Steve Haston, FR 1-7241. Tickets are through the courtesy of Paradise Realty.

VEGAS LICENSES

Marriage licenses issued here include:

Thornton-Willis — Feb. 13, Jon R. Thornton, 21, and Ann Adele Willis, 19, both of Torrance.

Sheppard-Cardona — Feb. 14, George F. Sheppard, 28, of Long Beach, and Eleanor J. Cardona, 19, of Wilmington.

Clem-Border — Feb. 17, Harry Clem, Jr., 35, of Torrance, and Helen Jean Border, 22, of Lawndale.

Searles-Linderman — Feb. 17, Robert Nelson Searles, 21, of Culver City, and Brooke Diane Linderman, 19, of Torrance.

Ossola-Massey — Feb. 18, John W. Ossola, 20, of Orem, Utah, and Elizabeth Lynn Massey, 18, of Torrance.

Snyder-Snyder — Feb. 18, Samuel A. Snyder, 38, married Bessie F. Snyder, 36, both of Torrance.

BIRTHS

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Allen, 21805 Dewey Avenue, Torrance, Feb. 1.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Del Zamora, 25220 Loytan Street, Torrance, Feb. 3.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Paulson, 22308 Eastwood Court, Torrance, Feb. 6.

A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. T. Stevens, 4003 West 242nd St., Torrance, Feb. 7.

Basket Auction Added Feature

The South Bay Garden Club will hold its annual Camellia Tea Monday, Feb. 26 in the Redondo Beach Women's clubhouse, Broadway at Pearl Sts. at 1:30 p.m.

Co-hostesses for the tea will be Mrs. David Vaccaro, Torrance and Mrs. D. C. Denton of Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Caesar Arcq of Redondo Beach will be in charge of the specimen bloom table. Prizes will be awarded for the best flower arrangements containing camellia blossoms.

As an added feature this year there will be a basket auction, according to Mrs. Jerzy Makowsky, Torrance, white elephant chairman.

Sheri Salmon ... Woman's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

BEGORRAH! — The luck of the Irish isn't needed when you have three hard working officers of the Southwood Little League planning a special event such as the "Shamrock Ball." Shown above, making final preparations for the event are Mmes. Stan Sellers, treasurer; Joseph Du Mont, publicity chairman, and Robert Rothwell, president. The gala event will take place March 24 at the Eagles Hall, 128 So. Catalina, Redondo Beach, from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m., with music furnished by "Don's Trio," a local group. (Press Photo)

'Continental Flair' Fashions Of Interest to Torrance Women

Fashion conscious women and handsomely supplement of Torrance will be afforded a rare opportunity to indulge their interest when Las Damas de Lasuen presents the first area showing of Mrs. Ricardo Montalban's spring and summer collection on March 3 at the Plush Horse Inn.

More than 600 invitations are in the mail for the event which will benefit Fernin Lasuen High School library.

Designated "Continental Flair" the show will feature couturier designs from Roman houses which are sold exclusively at Mrs. Montalban's Beverly Hills Shop as well as those of famous American creators. Talented wife of the eminent television and motion picture actor and sister of Loretta Young, Mrs. Montalban has reserved a table for herself and her guests at the elegant afternoon event.

HOT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Francis J. Henry Rolling Hills, general chairman, announced today that the Royal Room of the Plush Horse Inn has been reserved for the affair for which an 11 a.m. assembly hour has been set to be followed by a full course hot luncheon planned by the chef de cuisine and the parade of fashions which will be worn by Mrs. Montalban's professional models. Mrs. William Caldwell of Brentwood will do the commentary.

Well known Joe Moshay and his musicians will add special lustre to the occasion as well the appearance of a celebrity whose identity will be revealed prior to March 3.

Mrs. Slavko Frelkin noted that reservations should be made prior to March 1 and that seating will be arranged in the order in which acceptances are received. Either Mrs. Henry of 12 Cerrito Place, Rolling Hills or Mrs. Frelkin, 1559 West Ninth St., San Pedro may be contacted for further information.

LIGHT BREAKFAST

Many European hotels prefer that breakfast be served in the guest's room, the Automobile Club of Southern California reports. Although most Europeans eat a light breakfast of rolls and coffee, eggs, bacon, ham and sausage are available.

Flags Presented to Brownies By Chairman of Junior Women

New flags were recently presented to two Brownie troops by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, CFWC. Making the presentations, was Mrs. Richard Gazeley, Americanism chairman.

Both troops are sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club. Mrs. Lynn Meehan is leader of Brownie troop No. 206 which has twenty-two members. There are fourteen girls in troop No. 28 and Mrs. Dick Ladderbush is the leader.

TEENAGE WINNER

The winner of the fourth annual "Teen-aged Miss" contest sponsored by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, is Miss JoKay Louvier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Louvier, 22606 Evalyn Torrance.

Miss Louvier was introduced by Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, youth chairman, at the February business meeting held at the clubhouse. She was presented with a sterling silver engraved charm bracelet, and gifts from local merchants.

Linda Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kennedy, second place winner, was also given an engraved charm bracelet and gifts from local merchants. Miss Louvier will enter in the Marina District competition at the District conference to be held in Hawthorne, Monday Feb. 26.

BACKGROUND

Miss Louvier is a 3.85 student at South High School. She has a total of 9 years in scouting. As an intermediate scout she earned 37 badges, curved bar. As a Mariner scout she has 7 ranks, and her hospital Aid Bar, volunteering 87 hours of service at Riviera Hospital.

Her musical activities include playing piano and clarinet. She marched in the Torrance Honor Band in the 1961 Rose Parade and is a five-year member of the Torrance Youth Band. She is a member of the Order of Athena, an honorary service club at South High School, member of California Scholarship Federation.

Her interests include sewing, reading, cooking, swimming, golf and tennis. Upon graduation from high school she plans to go to UCLA and work for her bachelor of Science degree in nursing and become a registered nurse.

Miss Kennedy is a senior mathematics major at North High School. She plans to attend college and be a high school mathematics teacher. She has been active in scout, ing, and other organizations. She too, has an A-scholastic average.

Wild Flowers Discussed Tuesday At Riviera Garden Club Meeting

Miss Bonnie Templeton will speak on the subject "The History and Legends of Some California Wild Flowers" at the regular monthly meeting of the Riviera Garden Club, Feb. 27 at 8 p.m. Miss Templeton, a very well informed speaker, is the Curator of Botany at the Los Angeles County Museum at Exposition Park.

The meeting will be held in the home of the hostess, Mrs. Jerry Toombs, 4625 Paseo de las Tortugas. Co-hostess for the evening is Mrs. Howard Swarthout.

Last year the Riviera Garden Club with the help of the Girl Scouts planted wild flower seeds provided by the Richfield Oil Company on the hillside below the Los Arboles Park. These seeds did not grow because of lack of rain. This year might be a success.

PTA News

PARKWAY

Parkway PTA annual life membership awards were presented at recent unit meeting. Mayor Albert Isen was present to speak briefly and hand the award to Mrs. Robert Stapleton. Tony Baratta, principal, presented second award to Mrs. T. L. McLean. Evening was highlighted with a skit by Parkway mothers and I. G. Christensen.

VICTOR

Victor PTA presented a founders day program directed by Mrs. Lawrence Satterfield. Victor being a new school corsages were presented to past presidents of other units who are now members of Victor. Fashions in the past history of the PTA movement were modeled by Mmes. Joseph D'Amico, Edward Jacket, and Wally Pollack. Slate of officers was read by Robert Trost. Mrs. Harvey Horwick outlined the bicycle safety program to be held March 10.

Plans for the March 14 meeting include a guest speaker from the U.S. Air Force who will speak on "Space and Your Tax Dollar." Election of officers will be held that evening.

FLAVIAN

Flavian PTA, Mrs. Jack Young presiding, met for founders day program and honorary life awards. Mrs. Kenneth J. Edwins, chairman, presented honorary life memberships to A. K. Groves and Wayne Simpson for outstanding community efforts.

Guests included Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, president Torrance Council and Mrs. Eric Wescombe, council program chairman.

BROWNIE BOON — Accepting the new flag being presented to them by Americanism chairman Mrs. Richard Gazeley of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club are (back row, left to right) Lindy Kilgore and Deborah Lailor of troop 28; Patty Goodberry, troop 206; (In the foreground) Virginia Roberts and Carla Ucker of troop 206. Troops 28 and 206 are both sponsored by the Junior Women. (Press Photo)

SHOWS SKETCHES — Mrs. Ricardo Montalban shows sketches of designer creations which will highlight Las Damas de Lasuen fashion luncheon on March 3 at the Plush Horse Inn. to Mrs. William Caldwell, commentator, shown here wearing a pure silk cocktail dress from the Montalban collection.