

Mothers of Twins Hold 'Spring Duet in Fashion' Monday Eve.

"MIRROR, MIRROR..."—Checking her reflection in the mirror is four-year-old Joyce... or is it Joanne (?) Douglass. Actually, it isn't a real mirror and the reflection is not a reflection after all, but identical twin girls getting ready to take part in the Mothers of Twins fashion show March 19, at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro. The Douglass girls are just two of the Torrance twins which will be featured in the showing of spring fashions.

Torrance Twins Will Participate in Show

"A Spring Duet in Fashion" is the theme of the spring fashion show to be enacted by the South Bay Mother's of Twins Club. This delightful evening will be held at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro on March 19 at 7 p.m.

All proceeds will be donated to the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation in San Pedro, which is the club's major philanthropic project for 1962. Three hundred guests are expected to attend the dinner and fun filled evening, states general chairman, Mrs. Robert Jackson of Rolling Hills.

There will be two showings of the latest spring styles. The first will be staged by ten sets of twins and one set of triplets ranging in age from two to eleven years. These spring ensembles will be furnished by the Carousel Children's Shop in San Pedro. The second showing of late fashions will be modeled by eight mothers of twins, and will be sponsored by Helen Morgan's Dress Shop in the Del Amo Center, Torrance.

President of the club, Mrs. John Adams of San Pedro will welcome guests and introduce Mrs. Norvel McKean of San Pedro who will commentate for both shows. Mrs. Robert Sowell of Palos Verdes Estates is door prize chairman. Of many prizes, the grand award of the evening will be a weekend for two at the Thunderbird Hotel in Las Vegas with air transportation provided.

Mrs. Glenn Smith of Torrance is chairman of decorations and has created a beautiful green and white theme carried out with silhouettes of children and musical notes surrounded by lilies of the valley. Hostesses at the door will be past presidents of the club, Mrs. Walter Withrow and Mrs. Robert Campbell both of Torrance and Mrs. Dick White of Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Tom Prevo of Redondo Beach may be contacted for dinner tickets and information. Mr. Herbert M. Lane of the Hammond Organ Studios of the South Bay will provide music during the modeling as a donation toward this philanthropic cause.

Models for the children's portion of the show will be: Tracey, Mark and Terry Eisman, three-year-old triplets; Mark and Marie Huseau, age six; Cheryl and Craig Dunn, age six; Caryle and Sherrie Myer, age ten and Kathy and Neal Campbell, age eleven; Joyce and Joanne Douglass, age four, all of Torrance; Susan and Jennifer Sowell, age four, of Palos Verdes Estates; Barbara and Deborah Strawn, age four and Jill and Scot Stewart, age four, all of Rolling Hills, Pat and Paul McKean, age five, of San Pedro and Heidi and Melinda Garrett of Harbor City, age two.

Adult models participating are Mrs. Gordon Anderson of Palos Verdes Estates, Mrs. Gordon Garrett of Harbor City, Mrs. Ronald Eisman, Mrs. Guy Lucas and Mrs. Jerry Hopkins all of Torrance, Mrs. Jack Boyer of Manhattan Beach, Mrs. Richard Cassell of Hollywood Riviera and Mrs. David Christie of Redondo Beach.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. Harold Barker, ways and means; Mrs. Eugene Douglass, programs; Mrs. James Cantrell, backstage help; and Mrs. Ellis P. Myer, publicity, all of Torrance and Mrs. Jack Boyer of Manhattan Beach, table favors.

TORRANCE TWINS Caryle and Sherrie Myer get a few modeling tips from Mrs. Guy Lucas, member of the Mothers of Twins Club. Both the girls and Mrs. Lucas will be appearing in "A Spring Duet in Fashion" show which takes place next Monday at 7 p.m.

The event will be divided into two showings—one for adult fashions—the other, fashions for children. All proceeds will be donated to the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation. (Press Photo)

Las Vecinas Women To Hear Al Lukes

Las Vecinas Women's Club will have Al Lukes as guest speaker at their meeting to be held Thursday, March 22, 1 p.m., at the Plush Horse, states Mrs. Mel Heflinger, program chairman.

Mr. Lukes' topic will be "Behind the Iron Curtain—Czechoslovakia."

Mr. Lukes has been active in community affairs in the South Bay for eight years, working with the American Cancer Society, Community Chest, and YMCA drives; he also is a past president of Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce, Redondo Youth Canteen Advisory Board, South Bay Chapter of American Field Service, and Rotary Club. In 1957 he was named Citizen of the Year in Redondo Beach, and in 1959 he was listed in Who's Who in the West. He is the present president of South Bay Chapter of Community Concert Association, and also is president of South Bay YMCA board of managers.

It was through Mr. Lukes' interest in the American Field Service, that he made a tour through Europe visiting 16 foreign A.F.S. students. He visited with relatives in Czechoslovakia, so he is able to give us first hand information on what life is actually like behind the Iron Curtain.

Musical entertainment will be presented by the Las Vecinas Chorus.

President Mrs. John V. Woods will conduct the business meeting.

Chairmen Mmes. Albert Kurz and Roy Menashe announce that the fashion show will be held March 29, at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Reservations are still available and may be made by contacting Mrs. Donald L. Meyer, FR 5-7105.

Tea chairman will be Mrs. Donald H. Arndt.
