Terence A. Spisak, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spisak of 418 Swope St., Torrance, is serving aboard the attack cargo ship USS Vermilion, a unit of the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force, headquartered at Norfolk, Va., which celebrates its 20th anniversary on Feb. 20.

Organized on Feb. 20, 1942, the force lead every major Allied amphibious landing in North Africa and Europe during World War II.

Today, nearly 17,000 men assigned to 58 ships and supporting units make up the force, which teams with the Atlantic Fleet Marine Force to provide a vital amphibious striking capability for the nation. Combat-ready units range the Atlantic, Indian, Arctic and Antarctic Oceans, as well as the Caribbean and Mediterranean Seas.

Vice Adm. Alfred G. Ward, commander of the Atlantic amphibians, sent a personal anniversary message to the men of his force praising their importance as a "vanguard in peace and spearhead in war."

Second Lieutenant David H. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emily L. Jones of 3 Stallion Road, Rolling Hills, Calif., has entered United States Air Force pilot training here.

Lieutenant Jones, a graduate of Redondo Beach High School and Occidental College, Los Angeles, will fly T-37 and T-33 jets during the year-long flying training course. He also will receive special academic and military training and will be awarded the silver wings of a pilot upon graduation.

The lieutenant and his wife, the former Sally Setter of San Fernando, have one child.

John D. Stimson, aviation boatswain's mate, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stimson of 24218 Hawthorne Blvd., Torrance, and Ronald A. Flynn, airman apprentice, USN son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Flynn, 21034 S. Shearer, Torrance, are serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Bennington, which arrived Yokosuka, Japan, Feb. 1.

It's first stop on its current deployment with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East. The Bennington will serve as flagship of the Seventh Fleet's Anti-Submarine Warfare Task Group during its tour in the Western Pacific.

Army Reserve Sergeant First Class Allan E. Richardson, whose wife, Shirley, lives at 2406 W. 180th P. Torrance, was greeted by General Bruce C. Clark, U.S. Army, Europe, Command in Chief, upon his arrival in Germany for a five-day orientation visit to Berlin, Feb. 19 to 23.

Sergeant Richardson, one of 50 senior reserve non-commissioned officers selected for the tour, observed U.S. Army, Europe, tactical units undergoing field training and got a close look at the Communist wall that separates East and West Berlin. The purpose of this tour was to prepare the selected NCOs to conduct troop level briefing on Army training and operations in Europe to personnel of the home stations.

Richardson is regularly assigned as operations sergeant of the 663rd Engine Company, an Army Reserve unit at Fort Ord, Calif.

The 28-year-old sergeant son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richardson, 2128 Paseo Del Mar, San Pedro, is a 1954 graduate of George Washington High School in Los Angeles and a 1954 graduate of Los Angeles City College. He was employed as an engineer by the Los Angeles City Fire Department before going on active duty.

Army Pvt. Rudy L. McTee, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. McTee, 2004-259th F. Lomita, completed eight weeks of military police training at The Provost Marshal General Center, Fort Gordon, Ga., Feb. 2. McTee received instruction in self defense, traffic control and the basic procedures of civil and military law. The 23-year-old soldier entered the Army in September 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Ord. McTee is a 1957 graduate of Narbonne High School, Lomita, and attended Los Angeles Harbor Jr. College, Wilmington. He was employed by the U.S. Post Office Department, Palos Verdes, before entering the Army.

Airman Second Class Michael Croan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Croan Sr., 16812 Yukon Ave., Torrance, is assigned to a United States Air Force unit participating in Exercise Banyan Tree III which will continue in this area through early March. The joint training maneuver for air and ground forces is designed to develop the combat readiness of units participating in the exercise.

Forces for the exercise are from the U.S. Caribbean Command, the unified U.S. Strike Command, and from combat support units of U.S. Air Force major air commands.

Airman Croan is an assistant crew permanent assigned to a unit of the Tactical Air Command at Sewart AFB, Tenn. He will return there upon completion of the exercise.

The airman, a graduate of Bethpage, N. Y., High School, entered the service in October 1960.

Army Pvt. William J. Rowan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rowan, 244 Madison St., Torrance, recently was assigned to the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, N.C.
