UJWF Asking Support in Its Campaign

Beginning April 1 the United Jewish Welfare Fund will ask the people of the Los Angeles area to give $8 million to help it carry out its life-saving programs. This is two million dollars more than was raised last year.

There is much suffering in the world—too much. Agencies like the UJWF, which is one campaign supporting 169 causes, do what can be done to relieve that suffering.

Hospitals must be maintained and staffed; medicine must be dispensed; children must be cared for, educated, in many cases, fed, clothed. Families are relocated, housed, kept together until they can become self-sufficient again. Recreational and social activities are provided for boys and girls, teen-agers, and senior citizens.

This costs. And the cost is borne by those who are able to bear it. The money we give to the UJWF is used to support a clear-cut, well-defined, realistic approach to major problems that face us all. Its emphasis is placed on the rebuilding of lives.

Fine leadership and ingenuity combine in the UJWF to make a massive, intensively dramatic drive against those ills that plague our fellowmen. Through support of the UJWF we can help secure the future for hundreds of thousands of people in need. It is a program in which all good men can become self-sufficiently and enthusiastically make each of us a greater person.

Seventh-Day-Adventists Now Contributing to Navajo Needy

Torrance Seventh-day Adventists are contributing funds this weekend to foreign-like mission posts of the United States.

"Every need does not lie on some far-off sun-swept Pacific atoll or African jungle clearing," says Pastor Goffar in commenting on the special offering being taken Saturday morning, March 31 at 11 o'clock.

"This offering will go to four locations in Arizona and Utah to help Navajo Indians—our all-but-forgotten 'original Americans.'"

According to Pastor Goffar funds received Saturday will help operate and expand educational and medical mission facilities at Holbrook and Navajo Mountain, Arizona, and Mexican Hat and Rock Door Canyon in southern Utah.

BOARDING SCHOOL At Holbrook, Adventists operate a large boarding school for Navajo youths from age six through 20 years. At Navajo Mountain and Mexican Hat clinics are operated, and at Rock Door Canyon in colorful Monument Valley a school, clinic and 23-bed hospital is operated.

Pastor Goffar said scores of thousands of very needy Navajos will receive welfare supplies, education and medical help through funds contributed by members and friends of the local church on Saturday.

"The Navajo is a very proud but needy person," Pastor Goffar noted. "On his vast reservation that stretches across much of Northern Arizona and Southern Utah live thousands of these wonderful people. Their colorful homes, clothes and habits are the delight of increasing numbers of tourists who travel into the remote Monument Valley area along the Arizona-Utah border.

NEEDFUL NAVAJOS — Feebly Navajo medicine man Ralph Grey, 84, and his wife, Sally, typify need among thousands of Navajos living in northern Arizona and southern Utah who will be benefited by special offering being taken at Torrance Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 1610 Acadia Ave., Saturday, March 31, at 11 a.m. Now blind, medicine man Grey still performs strange "sings" in Navajo hogans when members of the tribe fall ill. The couple here find comfort in sunlight before their hogan located in colorful Rock Door Canyon area of Monument Valley.

LIVING STANDARDS "But economic survival and health standards are, unfortunately, not closely related to the colorful level that visitors ascribe to the Navajo," explained Pastor Goffar. "Beneath the bright colored clothes and the turquoise and silver ornaments are sick bodies and hungry stomachs.

"The Navajo's reservation is one of the most unproductive, one of the most arid and desolate places in all America," the minister said. "He must be helped to live in this desolation where he still feels at home despite the unproductive nature of the land."

Catholic Daughters of America Plan Annual Communion Breakfast

Cancer Program Presented

On Tuesday, March 13, there was a program presented under the auspices of St. James Parish Council of Women on cancer in relation to family, it was announced by Mrs. Charles Bongard, parish health coordinator. This program was held in parish hall of St. James Church, at the corner of Broadway and Vincent Sts., in Redondo Beach.

The program was sponsored by the American Cancer Society and consisted of the following panel: Mr. Ross Potter, who monitored the discussion; Ronald T. Piccirillo, M.D., who talked on "Complete Medical Examination"; Robert E. Hollis, M.D., who discussed "Cancer in Children"; and Richard J. Lescoe, M.D., who spoke on "Cancer Quackery."

Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Torrance, held their March business meeting recently, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Cemore, grand regent.

Plans were discussed for the annual Communion breakfast to be held April 29, with Mrs. Donald Bryant as chairman. Mrs. Cemore reported on the success of the monthly hospital party at Harbor General hospital. Several of the members accompanied Mrs. Charles Butterfield, where they entertained two women's wards.

Mrs. Richard Ban told the Court of her recent visit to Court Madonna, Lynwood, where she presided as district deputy at the initiation of new members. Mrs. Ban also attended the investiture ceremonies of Monsignor Patrick McGuinness of St. Emedius Church, Lynwood, who is a former pastor of Nativity Church, Torrance and chaplain of Court St. Catherine, from its founding in 1945, until his transfer to St. Emedius.

Mrs. Ban also attended the 37th birthday dinner of Court Compton and was present at ceremonies held by Court Marian in Long Beach.
