The incumbent mayor has objected about our advertisement appearing in the Press last week.

$12,404.17 was used as expenses on council approved business . . . the term "personal expenses" was not used to mislead or infer that the expenses were used for personal reasons, but for such things as travel, food, lodging, telephone, entertainment, etc., over the past 8 years on city business. There was no inference intended that Mayor Isen had illegally used any expense monies.

OH, THAT PIZZA! — Guests of Torrance's Pizza Palace, 3848 Sepulveda Blvd., enjoy "real living" as they take their choice of pizza, topped with seven varieties of cheeses, 20 varieties of foreign beer as well as domestic beers, and the Gay 90's atmosphere which surrounds the interior of the establishment. Roy and Roger Dual provide Friday and Saturday night entertainment with their "hot" piano and banjo. Truly happy place to dine.

Gay Nineties Is Theme for Decor Of Pizza Palace

Look through the front kitchen window at Torrance's Pizza Palace at 3848 Sepulveda at Hawthorne and see pizza being made in a manner that will really whet your appetite.

In the short time they have been open, the "Pizzatronics" have sprinkled over one ton of the finest imported and domestic cheeses on their prized pizzas. Each pizza is made with seven varieties of cheese.

Additional seating capacity is being added to accommodate the near-capacity crowds that come to eat, drink and join in the singing of old-time favorites played by the banjo and piano of the Roy and Roger Dual on Friday and Saturday evenings.

In addition to domestic beers, over 20 varieties of foreign beer are served including most of the fine European beers and beers from as far away as Tahiti and Singapore. On draught they feature Dark Bavarian beer and Heinekens.

The interior is decorated in the Gay 90's atmosphere. The bartenders behind the brass-rail adorned bar wear derby hats, gay vests, and of course, arm garters.

The dining room is designed with the family in mind with redwood tables and benches.

His mound job wasn't quite as successful, with Hawthorne picking any pitch they wanted to smash out three homers, a double and single, all in the same inning, to give Hawthorne's crew an impressive 5-1 lead.

Remainder of the game tapered off with Turner finishing on the mound allowing seven extra hits and three runs. For the Spartans it proved to be their fifth defeat in six outings, clinching them for the cellar, lock and all.

Leading hitters for South were Turner, one for three. Berry with two hits in four times at the plate, and up and coming sophomore second baseman, Dick Buchanan, banging out two singles in three encounters.

HOW CAN THIS BE? It's very simple when you know facts. Every year we learn to USE OUR TIME BETTER. Since the cost of dentures is largely the cost of the dentist's time we have been able to KEEP PRICES DOWN. Dentists earn more now and materials cost more, but we save this by REDUCING WASTE in time.
