Name Two Civic Leaders to Local Brown Campaign

Rosemary DeCamp Shidler and Dave Selcer, Harbor area co-chairmen of the Committee to Re-elect Governor Brown, today announced the appointment of two Torrance residents as local chairmen.

James M. Hall, vice president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, will be finance chairman of the Brown campaign in the harbor area. He is a former Torrance City Attorney and a member of the board of directors of the Cabrillo Savings and Loan Association. Sam Levy, prominent business and community leader, will direct the campaign in Torrance. Currently, he is chairman of both the United Jewish Appeal and the Centurian Club, a group of persons who have pledged themselves to donate $100 a year to the Little Company of Mary Hospital. These two endeavors are typical of the broad, humanitarian outlook of this long-time Torrance business man.

VOTE FOR FRED STEINBRONER CITY COUNCIL TORRANCE, APRIL 10

Businessman Endorsed Unanimously for Treasurer

Candidates complimented for their initiative and interest in offering to serve the public.

FRED SPANGLER
Candidate for Treasurer

• Fred Spangler, Torrance businessman, was the unanimous choice of the "Committee for Good Government" for the office of City Treasurer.

Mr. Spangler, who has resided in this area since 1954, is campaigning on a platform of fiscal economy, efficient operation of the treasurer's office, and development of a program of reinvestment of idle city funds in order to obtain additional funds for community programs.

Long active in civic affairs, he served as director of the city-to-city program and was committee chairman of the Kony-Torrance sister city program.

Mr. Spangler is also a member of the Publications Committee of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

ELECT VERNON COIL CITY CLERK

Nat Mondati to Seek Improvement

Nat Mondati, candidate for Torrance city council, today stated that if elected:

"I will strive for a first class airport in the city of Torrance and for expansion of our civic center."

He also stated that he would fight for a positive master zoning plan to benefit the entire community and work towards obtaining more recreational areas, especially for children.

Mondati said he would "give clear and good judgment on all problems and maintain the best of service at a minimum cost to our tired tax dollar." Greater expansion in the field of fire and police protection is also being promised by the candidate.

The owner of a barber shop, Mondati resides at 3125 Sonoma St. with his wife, Betty, and their four-year-old daughter, Lisa.

$2000 for Lomita Street Projects

The County Board of Supervisors this week allocated $2,000 for two roadway improvement projects in Lomita, Supervisor Burton W. Chace reported.

Pavement on Feijo Ave. between 250th St. and 254th St. will be extended to join with existing curb and gutter.

Other project will be the same type of improvement on the west side of Narbonne Ave. at approximately 0.2 mile south of Pacific Coast Highway.

Both projects will be scheduled by the Los Angeles County Road Department pending the completion of other portions of the current work load.

PRINTS POSTERS — City Council candidate Nat Mondati, 3125 Sonoma St., is assisted by his four-year-old daughter, Lisa, and his wife, Betty, as he prints his own campaign posters for the forthcoming election.

Blount Believes in the Moderate Approach

Members of the John Birch Society recently attacked WILLYS BLOUNT in City Council . . . He welcomes these attacks . . . and meets them just as he would any attack from any extremist group—left or right wing—because WILLYS BLOUNT believes in a MODERATE SOCIAL and POLITICAL VIEWPOINT that will not embarrass the 110,000 residents of the city of Torrance . . .
