Cancer Chairman 'Buck' Atherton Enlisting Volunteers for Crusade

Sounding a hopeful note for the cause of cancer control, volunteers of the American Cancer Society launched their month-long Cancer Crusade this week.

"There's a feeling of success in the air," said district crusade Chairman H.

P. "Buck" Atherton, manager, Security First National Bank, Torrance.

"Not only do we expect to reach our Los Angeles County goal of $1,247,730, but meaningful things are being done with the money we raise."

"It's going to be only a matter of time until the answer to the cancer problem is found."

"This year's fund raising and educational Cancer Crusade will help to support the most comprehensive program ever undertaken against any disease," Atherton declared.

SLOGAN

Slogan for the drive is "To Cure More, Give More." Crusade Chairman Atherton said it dramatizes the fact that 1,100,000 living Americans have been cured of cancer, largely as a result of advances in research.

Since 1946, he pointed out, the American Cancer Society has invested nearly $100,000,000 in cancer research. Grants totaling $17,268,759 are in effect this year, and approximately ten percent of this amount is for projects being carried out in this state.

A door-to-door solicitation will be conducted in all the South Bay and Centinela Valley cities on the weekend from Saturday, April 7 through April 9. Locally three thousand women will be asking their neighbors to contribute to the American Cancer Society's annual April Crusade. In addition, each family will receive a piece of education literature.

Other plans call for countywide observance of Cancer Sunday and Cancer Sabbath on April 7 and 8.

Atherton said there is still time for volunteers to enlist in the month-long campaign effort. Persons interested are invited to call the society at the Inglewood office, OR 2-8148.

Date for judging the contest will be announced later, at which time contestants are to wear loose fitting blouses and bermudas.

Ross A. Sciarrotta

A graduate of Ohio State University and the University of Pittsburgh. Majors in Political Science and Chemistry. Educated in the aims and functions of government.

Instructor of Political Science and World Affairs at Long Beach City College. Lecturer and world traveler. Member of the Torrance Civil Service Board for 8 years.

FRANK Teacher

"A vote for my father means a vote for economy in government. He knows finances and the confines to which lawmakers should limit themselves."

PATRICIA Teacher

"A vote for my father means a vote for the fuller use of recreational facilities owned by the taxpayers. Playgrounds, parks, gymnasiums should be put to more extensive use. The city plunge should also be converted for year around use."

DON Teacher

"Like brother Don, I cannot endorse, I cannot recommend, I can't even campaign for my father because of civil service rules. All I can say is more power to him."

CHRIS Teacher

"A vote for my dad is a vote for one who will represent you well. He will study each issue and vote on all of them. He will not abstain."

"A vote for my father means dignity in the city council. He believes that flying tempers, public reprimands and displays of ill feelings are in bad taste."

"I am sorry I cannot recommend or endorse my father. Civil service rules prohibit my participation in city elections. All I can do is wish him luck."

"A vote for my father is a vote for a well balanced city. Torrance needs 44,000 jobs to be self-sufficient. He believes in Torrance workers for Torrance jobs whenever possible."

"Do vote for my dad. He is a wonderful father and a successful teacher. He was a successful chief chemist and a successful business manager. He will make a grand City Father."

MRS. SCIARROTTA Teacher, Mother

"A vote for my husband will also mean a vote for the enforcement of sump laws and the elimination of hazardous conditions before accidents occur. He believes in the adage that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

"A vote for my husband is a vote for a fair deal for all the citizens of Torrance. His past performance with the civil service board shows him to be fair, unbiased, considerate and yet firm."
