

Young Scientists Take Awards In Nativity School Science Fair

Nativity Catholic School's first Science Fair was held at the Nativity Parish Annex on Sunday, April 1. Students in grades three through eight submitted original exhibits in zoology, chemistry, botany, physics and physical science.

Ribbons were awarded by judges from Bishop Montgomery, Serra and Torrance High Schools and from U.C.L.A. Winners in the various groups will go to the regional science fair in Fullerton on April 15. Award winners were as follows:

Class A (Grades seven and eight)—Chemistry: Anita Bertuzzi, David O'Connor, Patricia Schnell. Zoology: Craig Gross, Steven Schaffer, Patrick Garvey. Botany:

Barbara Rabel, Barbara Bryant, Robert Erickson. Physics: April Barles, John Sabio, Michael Tweedy.

Class B (Grades five and six)—Chemistry: Cynthia Logan, Martha Junior, Patricia McDonald. Zoology: William Gilles, Maria Thornton, Laura Bukowski. Botany: Diane De Lucio, Catherine Davies, Deborah Barles. Physics: Martha Rabel, Janet Perry, Philip Sifers.

Class C (Grades three and four)—Botany: Donna Nero, Marlene Metivier, Carol Rashid. Physical Science: Denise Gallo, Rita Kerstiens, Kathleen Bobbitt.

South Bay Church of God Is Presenting Special Programs

In commemoration of the resurrection of Christ, the South Bay Church of God, 17661 Yukon Ave., will present a series of special programs at the church each night during Holy Week, beginning with Palm Sunday, April 15.

During the Sunday morning service, special music will be heard presented by two of the choirs of the church, under the direction of Mrs. LaWanda White; while in the evening, Geraldine Liming and Mrs. White will sing "Thirty Pieces of Silver," which will be the format for Pastor Clifford L. Tierney's evening message and the coming series of programs.

On Monday evening, April 16, the silent film, "King of Kings," will be shown. Tuesday evening Rev. Hugh Percy of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Torrance will show slides which he took during his recent visit to the Holy Land.

LIVE PORTRAYAL

An imaginary live portrayal of the first anniversary of the Last Supper will be presented Wednesday evening. Those portraying the parts of the 12 disciples, not including Judas Iscariot, are: Cal Eubanks, Charles Hart, Cliff Tierney, Bob Jonas, Welby Beal, Bruce French, Bob Roberts, Richard Liming, Bob Wallace, Doc Watson, Lou Frost and H. L. Wickendoll.

The portrayal will serve to prepare the congregation for a closer understanding of the 12 disciples as the church observes the Holy Ordinances on Thursday evening, seated around a table as did the disciples.

EASTER CANTATA

Friday evening, the Concord (Youth) Choir will present the Easter Cantata, "The Seven Last Words," by M. Isabelle Ritter. This will be arranged as a special "You Are There" program of the scene at Golgotha and the seven last words spoken from the cross. Soloists will be Joanie Soldano, Steven Macklin and LaWanda White, with the commentary by Pastor Tierney.

Easter Sunday morning the Chancel Choir will sing Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus."

Also, beginning April 15, the South Bay Church will again resume having duplicate worship services each Sunday morning. The early services will begin at 8:15 a.m. and the second service will begin at 11 a.m., with Sunday school starting at 9:30 a.m. Sunday evening services begin at 7 p.m. Each evening service during Holy Week will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Pastor Tierney extends an invitation to all who so desire.
