

News Of Servicemen

Pfc. Glenn J. Martin Jr., son of Mrs. Alma Mora, 22701 Enola Ave., Torrance, recently participated with other personnel from the 8th Division's 505th Infantry in a week-long annual Army Training Test in Germany.

The test, which pitted the 505th against an "aggressor" force under simulated combat conditions, included a series of tactical maneuvers which stressed communications, reconnaissance, security, tactical movement and air, guerrilla, nuclear and chemical defense. Tests of his nature are designed to maintain a constant state of combat readiness essential to a modern Army deployed to maintain the defense of the free world.

Martin, an automatic rifleman in Company B of the infantry in Mainz, entered the Army in February 1960 and arrived overseas in March 1961.

Army Pvt. Arthur Sealls, 23, whose wife, Barbara, lives at 2311 W. 237th St., Torrance, completed the food service course at The Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Va., April 6.

During the eight-week course Sealls received instruction in cooking, baking, meat cutting and was trained to operate a field kitchen.

He entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sealls, 1914 W. 252nd St., Lomita, he was employed by United California Bank in that city, before entering the Army.

Army Pvt. Charles G. Carstens, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Carstens, 2831 Danaha St., Torrance, completed the food service course at The Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Va., April 6.

During the eight-week course Carstens received instruction in cooking, baking, meat cutting and was trained to operate a field kitchen.

He entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.

He is a 1961 graduate of South High School and was employed by Arlington Auto Body before entering the Army.

Norman M. (Jack) Campbell, son of Mrs. Jessie Campbell, 24225 Walnut St., Lomita, has been promoted to lieutenant colonel in the United States Air Force.

Colonel Campbell is assigned here as project officer for Space Systems Division. The colonel, who received his B.S. degree from the University of Illinois, Urbana, is married to the former Mary P. Chaffin of Los Angeles.

The colonel, his wife, and four children are presently residing in Lomita.

Airman Second Class Albert J. McKenna, son of Mrs. Inez McKenna of 1066 McFarland Ave., Wilmington, has completed the United States Air Force technical training course for refrigeration specialists here.

Airman McKenna received instruction in refrigeration and air conditioning as they apply to Air Force equipment. He will remain at sheppard for advanced training on the Atlas missile.

A graduate of Banning High School, the airman entered the service in August 1961.

Captain Theodore A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Smith of North Bend, Ore., is being reassigned to Mather AFB, Calif., following his graduation from the United States Air Force Squadron Officer School here April 13.

Captain Smith, a graduate of North Bend High School and Willamette University, Salem, entered the service in March 1956. He and his wife, the former Barbara J. Cracknell of 25607 Lucille Ave., Lomita, have a daughter, Cheryl.

The Squadron Officer School, a part of the professional officer education system of the Air University, prepares young officers for command and staff positions at squadron and wing levels. Captain Smith was selected because of his growth and development potential as a leader in the aerospace force.

Airman Basic Gary R. Pfingston, whose wife, the former Marsha Hunt, resides at 724 Pine Drive, Torrance, is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for aircraft maintenance specialists at Amarillo AFB, Tex.

Airman Pfingston, who has completed his basic military training here, was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

The airman is a 1958 graduate of Torrance High School and a former student at El Camino Junior College. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William O. Pfingston of 5648 Maria Linda St., Torrance.

Army Pvt. Charles G. Carstens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Carstens, 2727 Cabrillo, Torrance, received congratulations and a certificate from Mr. Warren D. Ferguson, an instructor at the Quartermaster School, after being named honor graduate of the general supply specialist course at the school at Fort Lee, Va. During the course, Carstens was trained to perform general unit supply duties, assist in general supply operations and logistics, perform organizational maintenance of small arms and to serve as unit armorer. The 19-year-old soldier entered the Army in September 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He was graduated from South High School in 1961.

Airman Basic Elvin L. Morris Jr., whose father lives at 438 E. 224 St., Wilmington, is being assigned to the United States Air Force Technical training course for supply specialists at Amarillo AFB, Tex.

Airman Morris, who has completed his basic military training here, was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

He attended Lawndale High School.

Pvt. Robert A. Tapia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amando B. Tapia, 3511 W. 226th St., Torrance, recently achieved recognition as a top Army marksman by qualifying for the expert marksmanship badge during range firing with the Army's new M-14 rifle in Germany.

The M-14 will replace the M-1 rifle, carbine, Browning automatic rifle and M-3 Submachinegun. It packs the fire power of a light machinegun, can be fired both automatically and semiautomatically and fires the standard 7.62-millimeter NATO cartridge.

Tapia, a driver in the 84th Artillery's Headquarters Battery in Mainz, entered the Army in September 1961, completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., and arrived overseas last February.

The 23-year-old soldier is a 1956 graduate of Narbonne High School, Lomita, and a 1960 graduate of El Camino College. He attended Long Beach State College.

Army Sergeant First Class Charles F. Whiteley Jr., whose father lives at 8931 California Ave., South Gate, Calif., recently participated in the rifle and pistol matches held at Fort Buckner, Okinawa.

Sergeant Whiteley, assigned to the Army Ordnance Group's 96th Ordnance Detachment on Okinawa, entered the Army in 1948, was last stationed at Fort Niagara, N. Y., and arrived on Okinawa on this tour of duty in June 1960.

Whiteley is a 1947 graduate of Grover Cleveland High School, Caldwell, N. J.

Okay Plans for New PV Streets

Plans and specifications for construction of streets in a new subdivision tract west of Granvia Altamira and Hawthorne Blvd. were approved yesterday, according to County Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

The plans call for construction of nearly a mile of streets in addition to sidewalks, drainage structures and curbs and gutters at a cost of $80,000.

Completion of the project will provide access to 7 new homes.
