Forty-Three Persons Baptized Into Jehovah's Witness Church

"The issue of world rulership will soon be settled in favor of God's kingdom, the best form of rule for mankind," said Theodore Jaracz, district supervisor to the 3090 Jehovah's Witnesses at their final three-day circuit assembly held at the Longshoremen's Memorial Auditorium in Wilmington.

In developing the subject, "Who Will Rule the World," the speaker identified an invisible ruler who has made mankind's lot unbearable.

Jaracz said, "The Bible throws the spotlight on the world's irresistible wicked ruler at 2 Cor. 4:4, which exposes Satan as the god of this system of things, who exercises a blinding influence on men to further his wicked aims.

After explaining that God will end Satan's rulership,

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon Sunday Emphasizes Obedience

The Lesson-Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" in all Christian Science churches on Sunday will emphasize how obedience to divine law brings human redemption.

In a story featured in the Scriptural passages, Jonah's disobedience to God's command to go to Ninevah resulted in his being cast into the sea and swallowed by "a great fish. . . . Then Jonah prayed unto the Lord his God out of the fish's belly. And said, . . . When my soul fainted within me I remembered the Lord and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple." Then the Lord saved Jonah and said unto him the second time, "Arise, go unto Ninevah, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. . . . And Jonah began to enter into the city." Then the king said, "Let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God. . . . And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." (Jonah 1-3)

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy affirms, "Truth, Life, and Love are the only legitimate and eternal demands on man, and they are spiritual lawgivers, enforcing obedience through divine statutes."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (130), "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption."
