year General Motors college scholarship. Bringing the news is Roger Lundberg, of 3320 Palos Verdes Dr., North Palos Verdes Estates, regional manager for the United Motors Service Division of General Motors for the West Coast.

Ronald J. Williams Is Awarded Four-Year College Scholarship

Ronald J. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Williams, 2043-255th St., Lomita, has been awarded a four-year General Motors College scholarship.

The top-ranked student in his senior class at Nathaniel Narbonne High School, Harbor City, California, 18-year-old Ronald plans to study mathematics at California Institute of Technology and hopes to obtain a Ph.D. Degree.

In the summer of 1960, he was one of 30 students selected on a nationwide basis to attend the National Science Federation Math Camp at Florida State University. Last summer he was chosen to attend the Summer Science Program at the Thacher School in Ojai, California.

EXAMINATIONS
He received the coveted GM award on the basis of national competitive examinations taken by over 20,000 high school seniors earlier this year. His leadership qualities and scholastic achievement were instrumental in his selection by a group of nationally known educators.

The scholarship was among 100 awarded through national competition by GM as part of its more than $7,000,000 a year program of aid to higher education. Some 305 additional GM scholarships are awarded directly by a select list of colleges and universities.

PRESIDENT
In all, more than 1600 students are attending the colleges of their choice with GM assistance. Each scholarship is valued at from $200 to $2,000 a year depending on the need of the student. All private colleges selected

Local President Announces New Kiwanis Club

Kiwanis International has just established its first club outside the United States and Canada, H. G. Stephens, president of the Kiwanis Club of Torrance, announced today.

Stephens said the Kiwanis Club of Tijuana, Baja, California, Mexico, established on April 17, was the first club organized outside of English and French speaking North America in the 47 year history of the international service organization.

News of the historic event came from I. R. Witthuhn, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, President of Kiwanis International. The service organization's headquarters are in Chicago at the Kiwanis International Building, Chicago, Illinois.

In accordance with Kiwanis policy, the new club of Tijuana was sponsored by, and assisted in its organization by, neighboring Kiwanis clubs: The Kiwanis Club of San Diego and the Kiwanis Club of Chula Vista, California.

Seventy-one charter members made up this first Kiwanis club in Mexico. Senior Benjamin Garcia Montiel, an official of Agua Caliente Race Course, is the president of the club.

Kimpel Family Attending May COA Confab

Dr. and Mrs. William C. Kimpel and family, 2447 W. 233rd St., Torrance, will attend the 58th annual convention of the California Osteopathic Association to be held May 16-19 in Coronado. It will be concurrent with the 23rd annual convention of the Auxiliary to the COA.

More than 1,000 delegates, exhibitors and guests will register at the Hotel del Coronado for the 4-day meet.

INSTALLATIONS
Major items of business on the dual agendas will be the installations of the 1962-63 officers. Dr. Joseph P. Cosentino, Sacramento, will take over the COA president's gavel from Dr. J. Ralph Hughes, San Diego. Mrs. Charles C. Dieudonne, Glendale, will succeed Mrs. Arthur E. Miller, Glendale, as ACOA president.

HIGHLIGHTS
Social highlights of the conclave will include "A Night in Old Mexico" on Wednesday, May 16, and the president's banquet and ball to be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel del Coronado on Friday evening, May 18.

into Mexico, Witthuhn said, "This is no spur-of-the-moment action on our part. Kiwanians have long been anxious to spread their concept of the service club and its ideals into lands other than the United States and Canada. Now the time is propitious. Establishment of the Kiwanis Club of Tijuana comes less than a year after the delegate body approved a resolution calling for extension outside of the United States and Canada."

Adventist Youth Club Awarded Honor Position

The Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Pathfinder Club has been awarded one prize in a Southern California-wide church youth fair held this week in Lynwood, California.

Winning their prize in the fair's float parade contest among some 50 church youth clubs from Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties, the local club's victory capped weeks of intensive preparation for the large event held each year.

The prize was received following the day-long youth fair Sunday, April 29. The event was attended by some 4,000 southern Californians. Ellsworth S. Reile and William Henry, director and associate director of southern California youth activities for the Seventh-day Adventist church made the award presentation.

The Torrance Pathfinder youth club is to be congratulated for their outstanding work in preparing for this year's youth fair," said Mr. Reile in presenting the award.

The Torrance Pathfinder Youth Club was also named to a top year-long honor position among the 50 church youth clubs of the Adventists' Southern California Conference. This
