Gladys Aylward Is Speaker At First Baptist Church Meet

Gladys Aylward, who rose from the position of a London parlormaid to become a legend in her own life-time through heroic service in war-ravaged China, will speak Sunday morning at 9:15 and 10:45 at the First Baptist Church of Torrance, 2118 Carson St., according to a news release issued by Rev. Robert Dehn, acting pastor.

Because of having Miss Aylward as guest Sunday morning, a special service for mothers with special awards will be held at the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service.

Miss Aylward, known best as "The Small Woman" whose story was condensed in book form by the Reader's Digest and portrayed on the screen in the "Inn of the Sixth Happiness," has arrived in America as guest of World Vision Inc., a national missionary service agency with headquarters in Pasadena, Calif. It is her third speaking tour of North America.

Born in England, the speaker long dreamed of going to China as a missionary, but was unable to obtain backing because of her lack of education. She determined to go anyhow without help from anyone.

In 1930 equipped with railroad tickets, her Bible, nine-pence in coins and two one-pound traveler's checks (less than $8), Miss Aylward made the "impossible" trans-Siberian trip by rail to the land of China where she eventually became a citizen.

Her life in a remote town of northwest China became a series of dramatic events. She stopped a prison riot alone by calmly facing an ax-wielding inmate, rescued a child from a dealer in human lives, led the district's exalted Mandarin to accept Christianity and saw many other miracles of faith.

When war with Japan broke out, dangers for the "small woman" increased. She was cruelly beaten by soldiers, and on one occasion miraculously survived after being shot and used for target practice by the invading soldiers. Then, as a fugitive, without money or food, she led 100 homeless children on an epic journey across the wild mountains to safety.

Miss Aylward just recently conducted a highly successful speaking tour of Australia and New Zealand. She returns to America from Formosa, where she is continuing work among the Chinese and with homeless orphans.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to hear this missionary warrior. A nursery is open for all services of First Baptist Church.

Myer Alpert, president; Edward Sokolski, first vice-president; Dr. Samuel Farber, second vice-president; Ben Kaufman, financial secretary; Walter Remak, treasurer and Mrs. Stanley Lieber, secretary. Program will be preceded by a business meeting and discussions of plans for the Sisterhood's Donor and installation luncheons. Interested persons may call Mrs. Robert Eckhouse, FR 5-0228, for information.

Sisterhood Sabbath will be observed Friday, May 11 at 8:30 p.m. at the Temple. Members of the sisterhood will participate in the evening worship service.

DONOR LUNCHEON
Temple Menorah Sisterhood will honor over one hundred women at their annual Donor luncheon Thursday, May 17 at the Pen 'n Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach. The program, which begins at noon, will feature Rena Waxman, famous "one-woman show."

Miss Waxman will dramatize Paddy Chayefsky's "Holiday Song," enacting each character in the play. She has had an illustrious career in show business and has been described as "not just an actress, but a whole theater within herself."

Each year the Sisterhood has as its honored guests, women who have achieved the goal of "Donor" in support of Sisterhood activities at Temple Menorah. Reservations for those who will have fulfilled their Donor should be made before May 10, with Mrs. Paul Scheer, Torrance, Donor chairman, at FR 5-6219.

YOUNG COUPLES
The Young Couples Group of Temple Menorah will present a gala Gay 90's Night on Saturday, May 19.

Beginning at 8:30 p.m. there will be music for dancing by the Collegiates; coffee, free beer and pretzels. Pizze will be on sale as well as carbonated beverages.

During the evening a Gay 90's review will be presented by members of the group with a traditional line of lovely chorus girls, barber-shop quartet plus two and an old-time oleo. Dances of the era as well as many other special acts will be presented.

Door prizes will be given and all proceeds from the event will be donated to the Temple Building Fund. Tickets may be purchased at the door, or in advance by calling the Temple office during the day.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

Creation Discussed In Sermon
The perfect nature of spiritual creation will be emphasized at all Christian Science services on Sunday. Among the Bible passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" is this one from Genesis 1:26, 27 "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. "God created all through Mind, and made all perfect and eternal," declares Mary Baker Eddy in a correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Again she says, "Existence, separate from divinity, Science explains as impossible."

"Immortal men and women are models of spiritual sense, drawn by perfect Mind and reflecting those higher conceptions of loveliness which transcend all material sense."

The Golden Text is from Job (8:20), "Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers."

IMPROVED
In first eight road games of 1962, the Los Angeles Angels were a much-improved road club over 1961. They had 5-3 record this year as against a 1-7 mark in '61.

'Home' Is Topic Of Sun. Sermon On Mother's Day
"There's No Place Like Home" will be the sermon topic of Dr. R. Murray Jones at the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd., for Mother's Day.
