

News Of Servicemen

Army Pvt. Edwin D. Jiles, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Jiles, 21245 S. Figueroa, Torrance, completed the eight-week radio relay and carrier operation course at The Signal Training Center, Fort Gordon, Ga., April 13.

Jiles received instruction in the operation and maintenance of field radio relay, carrier and associated equipment.

He entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.

He attended Decatur (Ill.) High School and attended Los Angeles Trade-Technical Junior College.

Army Pfc. Michael B. Warner, 19, of 1551 W. 214th St., Torrance, recently participated with other personnel from the 3rd Infantry (The Old Guard) from Fort Myer, Va., in the Army pageant "Prelude to Taps" at the National Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C.

The eight-act prelude portrayed the U. S. military heritage and modern Army activities. It featured The Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps which dressed in Revolutionary War uniforms and played the music and instruments of the Continental Army.

The Old Guard is a specially selected unit which regularly serves as The President's personal honor guard. This group performs ceremonial activities at high-level functions and provides guards at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Warner, who entered the Army in February 1960, is a member of the Infantry's Honor Guard Company at Fort Myer.

He was graduated from Narbonne High School in 1960.

Marshall L. Adams, radioman seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Adams, Sr. of 22933 Galva, Torrance, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Forrestal, observed by President John F. Kennedy during a two-day visit on April 13 and 14, to the Atlantic Fleet in Norfolk, Va.

Following the Presidential visit, the ship headed for Vieques, Puerto Rico, to take part in a three-week joint Navy-Marine Corps maneuver involving more than 40,000 sailors and Marines aboard some 83 Atlantic Fleet ships to be climaxed with an assault on Vieques.

The President, accompanied by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, members of the Washington diplomatic corps and U. S. Congressmen, arrived in Norfolk the afternoon of April 13.

After a brief cruise in the fleet ballistic missile submarine USS Thomas A. Edison, the Presidential party boarded the tactical command ship USS Northampton to observe night air operations by the attack aircraft carrier USS Enterprise and USS Forrestal.

The next morning, the President received full honors in a review of the Second Fleet, and, following an anti-submarine warfare exercise and an aerial firepower demonstration by the Enterprise and Forrestal, his party observed amphibious assault landings using both landing craft and helicopters at Onslow Beach, N.C.

The Presidential party returned to Washington late Saturday afternoon.

Richard Cole, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denton L. Cole of 22005 Anza, Torrance, reported for duty, March 22, aboard the destroyer USS Arnold J. Isbell, operating out of Bremerton, Wash.

The Isbell is presently undergoing an extensive conversion as part of the Fleet Rehabilitation and Modernization (FRAM) Program. Upon completion of the conversion the Isbell will undergo a period of extensive training and rejoin the Pacific Fleet Cruiser Destroyer Force with the latest in anti-submarine weapons.

Before entering the service, he attended South High School in Torrance.

Henry E. Ford, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Ray H. Bryan of 339 W. 223rd St., Torrance, is serving aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Thetis Bay, observed by President John F. Kennedy during a two-day visit on April 13 and 14, to the Atlantic Fleet in Norfolk, Va.

Navy Lt. (jg) Allen R. Ruth, son of Mr. John Ruth of 3509 W. 185th St., Torrance, is serving aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Lynde McCormick, a unit of the First Fleet scheduled to visit the Seattle World's Fair between April 20 and 27.

In all, more than 3,500 navymen will visit the fair, and the general public will be invited to visit the 13 ships scheduled to call at Seattle during the fair.

The $80 million official international exposition will feature five "worlds of tomorrow" — the worlds of science, commerce and industry, art, entertainment, and the world of "Century 21."

Marine Pvt. William E. Waxman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Waxman of 2650 W. Carson St., Torrance, completed recruit training, April 3, at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The 11-week training covers physical conditioning, the history and mission of the Marine Corps, customs and courtesies, hygiene and sanitation and basic military subjects.

The new Marines will next report to camp Pendleton, Calif., for individual combat training.

Jimmie A. Bales, radarman seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bales of 9548 W. 104th St., Torrance, is congratulated by his commanding officer, Capt. George C. Bullard, after reenlisting in the Navy, March 23, while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Bon Homme Richard, operating out of San Diego, Calif.

Bales entered the Navy in February 1955.
