

News Of Servicemen

Army National Guard Lt. Col. Raymond W. Wachs, son of Mrs. Elvira Wachs, Route 1, Tempe, Ariz., completed the 16-week associate course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan., May 3.

Colonel Wachs was a member of the 25th class to complete the associate course. The class, which consisted of 411 U.S. Army officers and 33 officers from 16 allied nations, was addressed by General Paul D. Adams, commander of the U.S. STRIKE Command, at graduation day exercises.

The associate course was established in 1947 and is designed to prepare selected officers from all components of the Army for duty as commanders and general staff officers. The class included 76 Army Reserve and Army National Guard officers on temporary active duty. The attendance of these civilian component officers is indicative of the Army's effort to train and maintain "One Army."

Colonel Wachs is regularly assigned to Headquarters Company of the 38th Division's 293rd Infantry, an Army National Guard unit in Logansport, Ind.

The colonel and Mrs. Wachs live on Route 6, Rensselaer, Ind.

Wachs is a graduate of Tempe (Ariz.) Union High School and attended Arizona State College, Tempe.

He is the son of William P. Wachs, 20545 S. Madrona Ave., Torrance.

Airman Basic William H. Strandt, son of Mrs. Marge Strandt, 22141 S. Vermont, Torrance, is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for administrative specialists at Amarillo AFB, Tex.

Airman Strandt, who has completed his basic military training here, was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

He is a 1961 graduate of Narbonne High School, Lomita.

Airman Basic William A. Syler, son of Mrs. Wilma E. Syler, 153 W. 223rd St., Wilmington, is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for aircraft fuel systems mechanics at Chanute AFB, Ill.

Airman Syler who has completed his basic military training here, was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

He is a 1961 graduate of Banning High School.

Guildsmen Will Produce Series Of New Dramas

The Guildsmen, South Bay theatrical repertory, will once again produce a series of original dramas during the summer season.

Their first offering will be "A Bag of Groceries and a Sparkplug" which will open on June 1 at 8:30 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Redondo Beach.

Guildsmen shows will feature the arena staging that proved so popular last summer when the company played in the Plush Horse. Marcia Fehlman, Denis Vandal, and Rod Williams are among the regulars that will once again delight local audiences.

Tickets may be obtained by calling FR 1-3275 and FA 0-0031. Special group rates are available for theatre parties.

Wayt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newell E. Wayt, 815 Arlington Ave., Torrance, recently participated in Command Post Exercise Grand Slam I, a five-day Central Army Group (CENTAG) exercise in Germany.

Grand Slam I involved headquarters units from the German, French and U. S. Armed Forces which are assigned to CENTAG, and was designed to test operational plans and procedures of these forces. CENTAG is a major element of NATO in Europe.

The 19-year-old soldier, a driver in the 16th Transportation Company of the 8th Infantry Division's 20th Transportation Battalion in Gonsenheim, entered the Army in January 1961, completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., and arrived overseas the following June.

Wayt attended Torrance High School.

Thomas E. Patton, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Patton of 22325 South Main, Torrance, is serving aboard the gasoline tanker USS Tombigbee, operating as a unit of the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The ship departed her home port at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, April 12, and made stops at Kwajalein and Eniwetok Islands enroute to the Far East.

While in the Far East the Tombigbee will provide other units of the Seventh Fleet with aviation gasoline and miscellaneous cargo during amphibious operations.

Before returning to Pearl Harbor in August, the tanker is scheduled to visit ports in Japan, Okinawa, the Philippines and Formosa.

Pfc. Robert N. Welker, USMC, son of Mrs. Lucy B. Welker of 1158 226th St., Torrance, is serving with the Third Marine Aircraft Wing at the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Ana, Calif.

Helicopters, transports and jets of the wing provide air support for infantrymen of the First Division at nearby Camp Pendleton.

Raymond N. Lanham, aviation electronics technician airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond N. Lanham of 16821 Della, Torrance, is serving at the North Island Naval Air Station, San Diego, Calif.

BATSMAN

Described by Boston hierarchy as "the most natural batsman in baseball in years," Red Sox outfielder Carl Yastrzemski certainly gave evidence of it in games against the Los Angeles Angels last season. He hit at a .304 percentage clip and drove in 16 runs to really give the Angels fits. Overall in 1961, Carl had a .266 average 80 RBIs and 11 homers. But he really improved as the season progressed last year. In the second half of the season, he upped his batting average 34 points.
