

HC Students Active in Many Campus Events

Foremost in the thoughts of students this week at Harbor College (next to their studies, of course) are world affairs, fund raising events for scholarships, and student body elections.

The Women's Division of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce sponsored a rummage sale at the Caldwell Building in Wilmington on May 12. Proceeds will be used for scholarships at Banning High and at Harbor College.

The recent Mexican Lollipop sale on the campus was a huge success. This was conducted by the Spars Club, which is attempting to establish a scholarship fund of $100 which will be made available to a worthy Harbor student.

The final Recreation Night of the semester will be held on campus on Friday, May 25. Games, dancing and entertainment will be on the program for bearers of student body cards.

Early registration for the Fall Semester at Harbor college will take place on May 24 and 25. All students who plan to enroll for the Fall Semester should file their request for a permit to register in the Admissions Office.

On May 5, the annual trip of the Psychology Club, Psi Sigma, was made to the Norwalk Metropolitan State Hospital.

Favorite books of Miss Marsha Shearin, A.S.O. Secretary, and Mr. Carmen Marinella, Business Division, have been recently on display in the campus library.

Schedules for the summer session are available in the Admissions Office. Classes begin July 9 and end on August 17.

Construction has now commenced on the Life Science Building and the Sea Hawk Center, as part of Phase III of the building program.

At noon, on May 9, the World Affairs Club presented Mr. Jack Drown who spoke to students on behalf of Mr. Richard Nixon—in regard to the gubernatorial campaign.

Candidates for Associated Students Officers for the fall semester presented their platforms before the student body in the Campus Center on May 9. Elections are to be held on May 14.

"Peru, Past and Present" was the title of the talk presented to students at Harbor College during the noon hour on May 7. The speaker was Mr. Robert Isum, who has recently returned from a two year stay in Peru where he worked in affiliation with the Mormon Church. Slides and artifacts from Peru were also shown. Mr. Isum was sponsored by the Spanish Club.

Freeberg Named Alumnus of Year

Dr. Dale Freeberg, Leuzinger High School alumni president, was surprised to find himself the recipient of an award which he was about to present.

During his absence from an alumni board of directors' meeting, Dr. Freeberg, Hawthorne optometrist, was selected to receive the association's annual "alumnus of the year" award for his service to school, community and state. A substitute name was given to Dr. Freeberg and the "false" winner, part of the intrigue, dutifully replied to the unsuspecting doctors' letter of congratulation and invitation to receive the award.

The surprise presentation was made during the Alumni Day program at the school last Friday, May 18, by Walt Dixon, member of the association's board of directors.

Dixon listed the award winner's accomplishments as past president of Hawthorne Lions Club, past president of Los Angeles County Optometric Society, former member of the board of trustees of Los Angeles County College of Optometry and former instructor of the college.

Born and reared in Hawthorne, Dr. Freeberg graduated from Leuzinger in 1944, where he had been captain of the football team, champion high jumper, one of the organizers of the Varsity Club, student body president and an Olympian Boy.

Last year he was appointed by Gov. Brown to the State Board of Optometry and now is vice-president of the board.

He was 1961 general chairman of the American Optometric Association School Vision and Reading Forum. Dr. Freeberg this year donated a scholarship to the Alumni Association's scholarship fund, making a total of five scholarships to be given to the school this year by its alumni.

The 1961-62 winner of the alumnus of the year award mumbled his thanks to the association and its "very sneaky" board of directors.

Dr. Freeberg further stated that he felt that every citizen, regardless of party, would be interested in a sound farm program; one that would gradually reduce subsidies, which have been draining away not only our tax money but also our resources.

"Such utter disregard and irresponsibility in the use of government funds is basic to the present Billie Estes scandal, in which the Under Secretaries of Labor and Agriculture, and several top officials in the Agriculture Department have resigned or been fired and are now under federal investigation," Boyce remarked.

The Republican hopeful also advocated a mandatory limit upon the national debt; a "complete revision" of the existing tax structure and an end to wasteful subsidies as a means of solving governmental money problems.

Dr. Boyce, a life-long resident of 17th District, concluded that in the final analysis, sincere and dedicated Congressmen are the peoples' only safeguard against an overly ambitious bureaucracy.

Boyce Stresses Positive Action

Dr. Merle Boyce, Republican candidate for Congress in the 17th District, yesterday outlined a "positive approach to governmental problems," at a meeting of the Wilmington Kiwanis Club. One of the points stressed by the Republican contender was the controversial pending legislation of a 20 percent withholding tax on dividends and savings accounts. "We should insist," he said, "that government keep its hands off the savings of our elderly citizens, and the small accounts set aside for our children. The way to aid our economy is not to harass our small savers, but to encourage them," Boyce said.

Boyce further stated that he felt that every citizen, regardless of party, would be interested in a sound farm program; one that would gradually reduce subsidies, which have been draining away not only our tax money but also our resources.

"Such utter disregard and irresponsibility in the use of government funds is basic to the present Billie Estes scandal, in which the Under Secretaries of Labor and Agriculture, and several top officials in the Agriculture Department have resigned or been fired and are now under federal investigation," Boyce remarked.

The Republican hopeful also advocated a mandatory limit upon the national debt; a "complete revision" of the existing tax structure and an end to wasteful subsidies as a means of solving governmental money problems.
