News Of Servicemen

Airman Basic David R. Fuchsberger, son of Otto K. Fuchsberger, 3510 Emerald St., Torrance, is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for supply specialists at Amarillo AFB, Tex. Airman Fuchsberger who has completed his basic military training here, was selected for advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

He attended Redondo Beach High School.

Army Pvt. Robert G. Lock, son of Mrs. Wilma D. Lock, 1119 W. Magnolia Ave., Gardena, completed the five-week single rotor observation helicopter maintenance course at The Aviation School, Fort Rucker, Ala., May 4.

Lock received instruction in the organizational maintenance of a single rotor military helicopter.

He entered the Army last November and completed basic training at Fort Ord. The 22-year-old soldier is a 1957 graduate of Gardena High School and was employed by Chrisair Aircraft Service, Hawthorne, before entering the Army.

His father, Leonard G. Lock, lives at 1323 Portola Ave., Torrance.

Pvt. William E. Waxman, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Waxman of 2650 W. Carson, Torrance, is scheduled to complete individual combat training, May 4, with the Second Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The training is keyed to tactical matter and field and combat skills required of marines. It is during the training that the new marine learns to take his place in the small fighting units — the four-man fire team and the 14-man squad.

Lance Cpl. James E. Perry, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Perry of 619 Arlington, Torrance, was promoted to the present rank, April 23, while serving with Marine Aircraft Group 13 at the Marine Corps Air Station, Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii.

The group is the air-arm of the Hawaii-based First Marine Brigade.

Army Pvt. Orville D. Duncan, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Duncan, 2456 236th St., Torrance, Calif., recently completed the four week airborne course at The Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. Duncan received his paratrooper wings after completing four weeks of intensive ground and aerial training and instruction in the techniques of air transportation and delivery. He entered the Army last October and completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He attended Torrance High School and was employed by Lee's Roofing in Bell, before entering the Army.

Pvt. Phyllis J. Hill, 21, daughter of Mrs. Hattie G. Hill, 720 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance, recently completed eight weeks of basic military training at The Women's Army Corps Center, Fort McClellan, Ala.

Private Hill received instruction in such subjects as Army history and traditions, administrative and supply procedures, map reading, first aid and military justice. She received aptitude and interest tests to determine the field of work for which she is best suited during her Army career.

Private Hill attended Gardena High School.

Army Pfc Ralph V. Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Lucas, 26000 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, recently was assigned to the 8th Infantry Division in Germany.

Lucas, an ambulance driver in Company B of the division's 8th Medical Battalion in Wackernheim, entered the Army in September 1961, completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., and was last stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

The 24-year-old soldier is a 1956 graduate of Phineas Banning High School, Wilmington, and was employed by North American Aviation, Incorporated, Los Angeles, before entering the Army.

St. Catherine's Court Present Bi-Annual Event

Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Torrance, will be represented at the 20th Bi-Annual State Convention of Catholic Daughters of America by Mmes. Joseph Cernore, grand regent of the court and Robert Glaesges, grand regent-elect. Mrs. Glaesges will be installed as grand regent of the court in June.

Various workshops will be held on the many different phases of C.D.A. endeavors: World Missions; Social Welfare; Public Relations; Parliamentary Law, etc. Mrs. Cernore and Mrs. Glaesges will bring back to the court many helpful ideas to further their charitable work.

Other interesting events have been scheduled for the delegates to make their trip a memorable one. A San Diego harbor cruise, several tours of famous landmarks in the area, and formal banquets will make their trip complete.

Los Cancioneros Plan Tent Show

The home of Mrs. Reginald (Irene) B. Roberts was the meeting place of the executive board of Los Cancioneros recently. The board members met for a planning session on the forthcoming show "Cancioneros Carousel" which will be given on Friday and Saturday nights, June 1, 2 and 8, 9. Performances will be held in the green and white striped tent in Torrance Civic Center and curtain time will be at 8 p.m. sharp.

The tickets are now on sale for all performances at $1.50 each and may be purchased by calling Mrs. Robert L. George, FRontier 5-5795, Mrs. Donald E. McLean at TErminal 5-9467 or Mrs. Richard F. Collins, FRontier 1-1540. They will also be sold at the box office before each performance.

The tent show will feature Laird Brooks Schmidt, the world's only one-man group thinker, as the guest star. The members of the chorus, under the direction of Lyle Heck, will present a program of vaudeville, melodrama, and music from the latest Broadway shows.

Since seating will be somewhat limited, Los Cancioneros urge you to buy your tickets now and prepare for an evening of fun in a setting just right for a summer evening.
