

Torrance Juniors Plan Annual Fete

PUBLIC SERVICE — A group of public-spirited women are introducing a traveling voters digest for the purpose of promoting more political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government. Mrs. Charles Pearce and Mrs. Joseph Trivick are on their way with their Mobile's first stop Palos Verdes Blvd. and Sepulveda.

Provisional League of Women To Promote Vote-Mobile Digest

The Vote-Mobile, a traveling voters' digest of impartial information, will be introduced on May 26 and presented again on June 2 at eight locations by the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance. Its purpose is that of the League of Women Voters of the United States: "To promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government." By means of the Vote-Mobile, concisely stated, unbiased facts concerning the June 5 election will be made easily obtainable. Included in the nonpartisan material will be candidates' questionnaires for all state-wide offices, "pros" and "cons" of the measures, clarification of assembly and congressional districts, and explanations of procedures regarding reg-

Final Showing of Poetry Concert Series Scheduled for Saturday

Rosemary DeCamp Shidler and Dr. Frank Sullivan will be featured in an evening of poetry and readings on Saturday, May 26 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cooper, Palos Verdes Estates. This will be the fourth and final concert in a series sponsored by the 46th Assembly District Democratic Council.

Mrs. Shidler is well known for her television and motion picture appearances and has won recognition recently as the author of a children's book, "Here, Duke." Dr. Sullivan, who is a professor of English at Loyola University, is an authority on Chaucer and teaches modern drama.

Selections from the English poets including the Brownings, Houseman, Tennyson and Shakespeare will be presented, as well as readings from "Cry the Be-lived Country," by Alan Paton. The program also will include original material by Dr. Sullivan.

A few tickets are still available. For reservations call Mrs. George Stevens, FR 3-3302.

Queen for a Day, Party Celebrating Foundation

Mrs. John Holland of 3617 So. Leland, San Pedro, who was recently "Queen for a Day" on the television show of that name, has said that it has been Christmas in their home with all the gifts arriving weekly. But the highlight was the birthday party given for her son, John, and his friends from the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation. Mr. Ted Wood, host for the "Queen for a Day" show, arranged for a beautiful cake and all the trimmings and the party was held in the new rumpus room with the games and hi-fi record player in service for the first time. There were gifts that Mrs. Holland had asked for on the program so that her son and the other children of the foundation could have monthly parties. There was a loud "hurrah" as a chauffeur-driven golden Cadillac arrived at the front door with none other than Soupy Sales who entertained the children for several hours.

JUNIOR INSTALLATION — Junior Auxiliary of the Little Company of Mary will hold their second annual installation dinner at the Jump 'n Jack
