"TAX LIENS"

Real estate taxes are imposed by the city and county governments in the form of a lien on property. Although the State and Federal governments also have the right to tax real estate, they do not do so.

The assessed value of the property determines the amount of real estate taxes (also known as Ad Valorem taxes). The greater the value, the greater the tax. The County Assessor sets the tax amount and the County Tax Collector is responsible for its collection.

On the first Monday in March of each year, taxes become a lien against property, previous to the fiscal year in which they were assessed. The tax fiscal year starts on July 1st and ends on June 30th of the following year.

For the convenience of property owners, taxes are paid in two installments. The first installment, due November 1st and delinquent December 10th, covers taxes from July 1st to December 31st. The second installment, due February 1st and delinquent April 10th, covers the period from January 1st to June 30th of the following year. Penalties are imposed for delinquent tax payments.

I believe J. B. Colbert summed it up when he said: "The art of taxation consists in so plucking the goose as to obtain the largest amount of feathers with the least possible amount of hissing."
