Shown receiving the scholarships from James Armstrong, retiring president of TEA, are Miss Turner, South High, Miss Ingram, Torrance High, and Miss Fillon, North High.

Lomita Youth Wins Air Force Commission

Richard A. Williams of Lomita, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force and

LIEUTENANT WILLIAMS received his bachelor of science degree at graduation ceremonies Wednesday June 6, at the Air Force Academy.

Lieutenant Williams will be assigned to procurement officer course at Sheppard AFB, Tex. He is the son of Mrs. Alice Williams, 2334 W. 241st St., Lomita.

A graduate of Chadwick High School, Rolling Hills, the lieutenant received special recognition at the Academy by being named as a flight commander with the rank of cadet captain.

The new Air Force officer entered the Academy by congressional nomination. He was nominated by Congressman Cecil R. King.

Mrs. Lockwood To Conduct Xi Gamma Meeting

A perfume shower for the Resthaven School for Girls will highlight the June 13 meeting of Xi Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, 8 p.m. at the Melrose Nursery School, 8306 Melrose, Hollywood. Hostess will be Mrs. Virginia Grummett and Mrs. Edward Porter.

Resthaven is but one of the many organizations supported by the cultural and social group. Each month of the year members contribute money or gifts to some worthy institution or agency in this area.

Mrs. Charles Lockwood will preside over the business meeting with the program being presented by Miss Bettie Wiseman and Miss Theo Martin.

Three Co-eds Receive 1962 TEA Scholarships

Winners of the Torrance Education Association scholarships for 1961-62 were announced by James Armstrong, retiring president of the association. Raquel Fillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melecio Fillon, was declared the scholarship winner from North High School; Mary Kathryn Ingram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Richard Ingram, was the scholarship winner at Torrance High School; and Kathryn Gwen Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Farmer, was declared winner at South High School.

Each year, the Torrance Education Association offers a $600 scholarship award to a graduating senior from each of the high schools in Torrance. Students recommended should be members of the Future Teachers Club who expect to continue in teacher training in college. Awards are based upon the following: scholarship, leadership, and citizenship.

The scholarship program originating in 1956 with one scholarship has increased until today there are ten graduates from Torrance high schools in universities and colleges in California and throughout the country.

This year, William Lee, North High '58, is a senior at the University of California at Berkeley; and Richard Ryon, Torrance High '58, is a senior at the University of California at Santa Barbara. Also, in the program at the present time are two sisters, both graduates of Torrance High — Koyoko Takeuchi, '59, now attending Long Beach State College, and Kimiye Takeuchi, '61, now attending UCLA.

Other active scholarships

at the present time are:

Sonja Pesola, North High '59, California State Polytechnic College.

Mitzi Yoshioka, South High '60, UCLA.

Carol Johnson, Torrance High '60, Fairburg College, Waverly, Iowa.

Robert Bereskin, North High '60, USC.

Marilyn Flynn, South High '61, UCLA.

Patricia Wallace, North High '61, El Camino College. Scholarship recipients who have completed their college education are:

Barbara Bielefeld Smothers, Torrance High '56, graduated UC at Berkeley '60, and is doing her student teaching this year.

Judy Okada, North High '56, graduated USC '60, and is now teaching General Science and Biology at the Palos Verdes High School. Mary Yoshioka, Torrance High '57, graduated UCLA '61, and is now doing her student teaching.

West High School Needs Entry Data by June 15

Dr. Robert Ford, principal of the New West high school in Torrance, which will open in September has announced that interviews with all incoming students as well as the parents will be held July 2 through August 10 from 1 to 4 p.m. and 8 to 9 p.m. The interviews will be held in the counseling offices in the new high school building at 20401 Victor Street. In explaining the counseling project Dr. Ford stated it was the desire of the staff to "acquaint all the students and parents with the grade level counselor; to determine whether the students' programs are realistic in terms of aptitudes and abilities and to provide intensive orientation for parents and students through a system of programmed communications."

Union Carbide Official To Head Chest Division

Edward D'Anna Jr., of Torrance has been named as commerce and industry chairman for the Harbor's 1962 Community Chest campaign, according to Fred Mill, chairman.

D'Anna, industrial relations manager at the Torrance Plant of Union Carbide Chemicals Company, began his career at the company's Niagara Falls, New York, plant in 1937.

He has lived in the Torrance area with his wife since 1961, after being transferred from the Niagara Falls plant.

Since his arrival in Torrance, D'Anna has become an active member in the Torrance chamber of commerce serving on the governmental affairs committee.

He is active in district six of the local Personnel and Industrial Relations Association, which is affiliated with the Los Angeles County Personnel and Industrial Relations Association.

D'Anna graduated from the University of Michigan with a business administration degree and a major in personnel management.

As chairman he will help recruit and organize volunteer workers for the commerce and industry phase of the fall Chest drive in the Harbor Area.

D'Anna said he hopes that

EDWARD D'ANNA JR. ... C & I Chairman

business throughout the area will strongly support the 1962 Chest campaign.

An estimated one-third of the funds donated in the Harbor campaign is secured through the commerce and industry unit.

Israel Hilton

Excavation work has begun in Tel Aviv, Israel, on the site of the new $9 18-story Hilton Hotel, it has been announced by the Israel Office of Information in New York. The first 450 rooms are expected to be ready by 1964.

Beduins New Life

The lives of 10,000 Beduin of the Negev, Israel's southern desert, may soon be revolutionized as a result of a Government plan to build new towns and villages in the region and establish industry there. This is learned from the Israel Office of Information in New York. The Beduin tribesmen, who until now have been following their centuries-old nomad pattern of existence, are now to take a sudden leap into the twentieth century by settling down and becoming an integral part of the new southern development area.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Do You Operate Under a Fictitious Firm Name?

1. Ques. What is a Fictitious Firm Name?

Ans. Any name which does not completely and clearly identify the owner or owners.

2. Ques. Why should an individual or partnership doing business under a Fictitious Name file and publish a Certificate?

Ans. 1. The law is specific and mandatory. Business people, like other persons, should obey the law. 2. No Court action of any sort can be maintained until Certificate is filed and published. Such filing and publishing contributes to the value and protection of a trade name.

3. Ques. Is the name "J. B. Smith Company" a fictitious name?

Ans. Yes. Because the term "company" is ambiguous and suggestive of uncertainty.

4. Ques. How can customer find out if he has filed and published his certificate of business?

Ans. Simply by checking with the Corporation department of your county clerk's office, or by telephoning Los Angeles Newspaper Service Bureau, Inc., MA 5-2541.

5. Ques. What does Section 2468 of the Civil Code mean by the wording that no person or partnership failing to comply shall maintain any action upon, or an account of, any contract or contracts made or transaction had, under such fictitious name in any Court of this State?

Ans. Simply that the person or partnership cannot sue.

6. Ques. Does that mean that cash stores are not affected?

Ans. There are many grounds for court action besides the mere collection of past due accounts. For instance, a cash grocery may wish to sue a trucking company for damage to shipments.

7. Ques. In case one partner is succeeded by another, must a new certificate be filed and published?

Ans. Yes. "Every person transacting business in this state under a fictitious name" must file and publish.

8. Ques. In case one partner is succeeded by another, must a new certificate be filed and published?

Ans. Yes. Section 2469 of the Civil Code states that "On every change in the members of a partnership transacting business in this State under a fictitious name ... a new certificate must be filed with the County Clerk and a new publication made."

9. Ques. Must a corporation file and publish a certificate?

Ans. Yes, when the corporation as a person owns and operates some other business under a fictitious firm name. In such event it must file and publish, otherwise not.

10. Ques. Do public authorities demand compliance with the fictitious firm law?

Ans. Yes. For instance, the California State Department of Vocational Standards will not issue a license to any contractor or contracting partnership who has not filed and published.

11. Ques. May a person or person engaged in more than one business under fictitious name meet the publication requirements by filing and printing only one certificate?

Ans. The Los Angeles County Counsel has ruled: "We incline to opinion that the provisions of said section contemplate a certificate be filed and published for EACH fictitious name under which a business is transacted."

12. Ques. Does the filing and publication of a Trade Name Certificate have value in establishing owner's title in a firm name?

Ans. Yes, the courts have held such registration and publication to be a prima facie evidence of name ownership where two claimants to a name have contested ownership.

13. Ques. How may a Certificate be prepared, filed and published?

Ans. See your lawyer, bank, Torrance Press or the County Clerk.

14. Ques. What will it cost?

Ans. The statutory two dollar County Clerk fee for filing, plus the publisher's rate of $15 for four weekly insertions of the advertisement, amounting to a total of $17.

15. Ques. Where may filing service be obtained?

Ans. Complete service, forms and printed instructions is given FREE by the Torrance Press.
